Basketball Rebels lose in semi-final

The season came to an end for the GDHS senior basketball girls last Thursday as they lost 72-52 at the hands of Burlington Central in the Halton semi-final. The game was played in Burlington.

The Rebels stayed very close to Central in the first half trailing only 26-22.

Georgetown graduate on Queen's squad

A graduate of Georgetown district high school was a member of the College Bowl championship team from Queen's University.

John Clark is a defensive back and a member of the Queen's speciality team. Unfortunately injuries kept the player from participating in the team's big 16-3 win over the University of British Columbia Saturday. The game was played at Toronto'sVarsity Stadium.

Clark was in the lineup most of the season as Queen's rolled to a perfect 10-0 record.

Meanwhile John's younger sister Cathy was a member of the winning women's CIU cross-country team from Queen's. Cathy, a freshman at Queen's, is also a graduate of GDHS.

Reid's two goals pace senior victory

On Monday, in Shelburne, Luanne Reid scored twice in the final period to pull Georgetown ahead in a game that was even up to the last half of the third period. Reid scored three goals altogether as did Jenny Smith, with a single going to Lisa Allen. Final score was 7-4 for Georgetown.

In Georgetown, on Saturday, the girls met a strong Orangeville team and fell behind 6-1 after two periods. The girls finally got their act together in the final period and closed the gap to two goals before time ran out.

Again, Luanne Reid led the way with two goals. Jenny Smith and Lisa Allen got one apiece. Debbie Osbourne and Mickey Richmond played a strong defensive game. The final score was Orangeville 6, Georgetown 4.

Juveniles split a pair

The Georgetown Juveniles came up with their first victory of the season last Thursday when they defeated Oakville 3-1 at Alcott Arena. In their other game last week Georgetown lost by the same score to Guelph.

Goaltender John Nagtzaam, who was up from the house league, played an exceptional game in the win.

The leader of the team was forward Scott Turner, who manager Howard Murphy said played an exceptional game.

The game remained scoreless for the first two periods as Nagtzaam and his counterpart in the Oakville net Steve King held their respective oppositions out.

In the third period Georgetown hit with two very quick goals to open up the game.

With 2:21 gone in the period Bruce McCandless scored from Don Thompson. Just 22 seconds later Ed Dwyer scored what turned out to be the winner on a solo effort.

With just under six minutes left on the clock Oakville's Ron Martin finally beat Nagtzaam. A minute after the Oakville goal Turner tallied an insurance marker with Paul Morrow and Jeff Richardson earning the assists.

Against Guelph, Georgetown jumped ahead in the first period, but the visitors tallied three times in the final two to take the win.

Scoring for Georgetown was Blake Emmerson on play set up by Chuck Moffat.

The game did show that the Juveniles are improving steadily. Earlier in the season they lost 7-2 to Guelph.

COMING AT YOU

Coming at you is the GDHS swim team's Kevin Thompson as he competes in the butterfly event. The Rebels easily won the duo meet against M.M. Robinson held here last Thursday.

Major Midgets downed by Oakville

The Georgetown Sunny Acres Farm Major Midgets lost 5-2 to Oakville in Tri-county action here on Sunday.

The midgets stayed close most of the way, but Oakville erupted in the final period to earn the win.

After a scoreless first period Steve Robbins put Georgetown ahead with a marker in the second. Before the frame was out Oakville had jumped back ahead with three goals of their own.

Georgetown drew back to within one goal when Bob Denn tallied from Dan Reynolds early in the final period. Oakville then scored three before the game ended.

The midgets will try to get on the winning track in Flamboro tonight. Sunday they are home to Milton.
