Fun with horoscope

By Gerry Landsborough

Here we go as promised last week with an astrological look at how to spend the holiday season, along with some gift suggestions for everyone on your list "according to the stars."

ARIES... Being the fun-loving souls that they are, they seldom prefer work to play so the holiday season is made to order for them. Check your neighborhood and we'll bet the first on the block with the tree and lights or the annual Christmas bash is an Aries. After all if they do something they might as well be the first. Aries are natural rebels so look for something just a little bit different in a gift - you can surr if everyone you know has a watchcaltit it isn't going to turn your Aries friend on.

TAURUS... Our Taurcan friends are real home bodies so the Christmas nightclub scene is probably out - besides it is just too costly for Taurus. Perhaps a better restaurant - but the meal had better be worth every cent of the price. For a gift Taurus people are impressed by higness or greatness. If you can't buy big choose a great record album or a painting Most Taurus people lean towards the classics and lead hard music just doesn't turn them on Books are also high on the list - choose a biography of a hero or an empire builder For the ladies choose rich regal colours in soft fabrics for a real winner.

GEMINI... here we find the widest interest in the zodiac with lots of knowledge of this and that. The holidays put Gemini in high gear but watch out for those quick Gemini mood changes. The tree with all blue lights today could be red or green by tomorrow. Some Geminis will tempt lady luck at Las Vegas this year, and just let those chips fall where they may. Geminis like to flit here and there during the festive season so lots of visiting is a must. In the gift department remember the Gemini passion for doing two or more things at once - buy a gadget - anything that will let Gemini beat eggs while sawing a bench and popping corn all at the same time - believe me they'll love it.

CANCER... Cancerians would like life to be one big holiday full of the pleasures of good friends and gracious dining. Keep those Cancer moods to a minimum by remembering the three don'ts - don't criticize, don't ridicule and don't reject. By remembering the three don'ts and smothering them with your undying love and affection you'll have your best ever Christmas. Cancerians are sentimentalists so gifts that last and can be remembered every day are best. Most both male and female love to cook so "special" cook books or special cooking aids are appreciated.

LEO... Leo always finds a way to have a good time and reveals in the holiday spirit. Leo just has to beware of too much partying for without their beady sleep Leo's roar like wounded lions. Great fixers are Leo's so speciality tools are a natural gift item. If it costs an arm and a leg or just looks if you can be sure of making a hit with your Leo friend or mate.

VIRGO... Virgians are always busy with details and holiday or no, you can be sure every last minute thing will be taken care of.

Virgo people often excel at Christmas crafts or hand created gifts. Remember when buying, that Virgo prefers quality to quantity. In the gift department anything that will allow them order and detail will delight you Virgo friend. With their constant searching of things Virgo people usually look closer than others so they really appreciate the beautiful in life - only a Virgo would look for hours at the detailed butterfly wings in that cute little paperweight you found.

Dale Wood, right, director of the Georgetown Choral Society, presented a pair of complimentary tickets to the society's Christmas performance to Norman and Clara Wodhams of Georgetown in appreciation for their perfect attendance record. The Wodhams have attended each show put on by the choral society since its inception. (Herald photo)

Country sounds described

By MRS. BELLBOODY
Herald correspondent

On Tuesday afternoon Nov. 21, the Agriculture and Canadian Industries meeting of the Women's Institute was held in Holcrest Church with visitors from Norval and Hornby attending with altogether fifty ladies present. President Mrs. Robt. Alexander opened meeting with the ode and M.S. culcet, minutes of last meeting read and Roll Call answered with "Country sounds I love to hear." 4-H Achievement Day is Dec. 2nd, at the E.C. Drury School in Milton, all were in favor of renewing the Federated News, the 5 remaining W.I. signs on hand are to be sold, highlights of the Area Convention held in Kitchener end of Oct. were given by Mrs. R. Alexander and Mrs. G. Trevisanus. Mrs. M. Bird gave the flower report after which Mrs. Clayton Wilson took charge and called on Mrs. John Bird to conduct a song-song where all formed a circle and joined hands while they sang old favorites, the motto was given by Mrs. N. Harst. "Do you ever think what a desolate place this would be if God had never made a tree." Mrs. Frances Thompson sang Where ever you walk, then Mr. Vern Pickett introduced the guest speaker Mrs. Howard an accredited judge of flower arranging who has been a the Royal Botanical Gardens for 12 years, whom everyone watched with great interest while she made so many beautiful articles such as outside door wreaths, mantle decorations, table centrepieces, buffet type arrangements, a table centre using apples and pears with greenery. She worked with all kinds of evergreens, scotch pines, yew and mahonia leaves, milk weed and pine cones, no 20 gage wire and stick em tapes for her last arrangement was made with a silver candleabra, pink carnations, pinkie candles, ivy and small sprays of greenery which was breathtaking when completed. Mrs. Pickett thanked her for coming and showing us her lovely handwork and gave her a small token of our appreciation. Mrs. Clifford Wrigglesworth on behalf of the Hornby Institute and Mrs. Graydon Chester from Norval Institute expressed their thanks for being invited to the meeting and privileged to share in the demonstration. Mrs. Harvey Nurse gave the courtesies and after singing the W.I. Grace, meeting closed with a social hour.

YOUR WEEK AHEAD By DAMIS

Forecast Period November 26 - December 2

ARIES Mar. 21-Apr. 19 The twins - jealousy and envy are apt parent in your chart. Don't be concerned about an associate's advancement.

TAURUS Apr. 20-May 20 See that your established romance patterns are not broken. There's a big difference between opportunity and temptation.

GEMINI May 21-June 20 Let your conscience be your guide. Most members of your sign are haunted by thoughts in the shade - remember consequences.

MOONCHILD June 21-July 22 You are as solid as the "Rock of Gibraltar." Emotionally you can face any hair raising reversals!

LEO July 23-Aug. 22 Good news concerning your job or project is inevitable. You will be puzzled - it will come in a rather bizarre and misleading form.

VIRGO Aug. 23-Sept. 22 No written error will get by you. At this period of your chart, your mind is sharply honed.

LIBRA Sept. 23-Oct. 22 You will be called upon by your superior to do something that is well - some sort of honor. Beware - you will not gain popularity.

SCORPIO Oct. 23-Nov. 21 Verbal battle is tempting to you this week. It may get you places, temporarily, but the end result will be disastrous.

SAGITTARIUS Nov. 22-Dec. 21 You will make a few blunders, but things will actually go well for you this week - in all departments of your life.

CAPRICORN Dec. 22-Jan. 19 You have had your eye on someone quite a while. Your overtures and his/her acknowledgements are paying off.

AQUARIUS Jan. 20-Feb. 18 A change in your immediate environment will be hard to get use to. Incidentally, it will be to your advantage.

PISCES Feb. 19-Mar. 20 Turn up the wick at your job, task or project. Whether or not you are aware of it, it's an ideal time to start new programs.

ANN LANDERS

Dear Ann Landers: I was engaged to a lovely young woman. We got along great and I was sure she'd be the perfect wife.

Belle's family is well-to-do and material things have always been important to her. I'm a guy who never had much as a boy (poor family) but I'm a hard worker and will make it big one day.

Belle wants me to borrow money from her dad so we can start out with a beautiful apartment and expensive furniture. I told her I don't like owing money - especially to a relative - and she'd have to wait for that. She was awfully disappointed.

Last week Belle told me she has been praying a lot about our marriage - asking the Lord to guide her. Well, it seems the Lord told her to break off the engagement. She returned the ring (it was my grandmother's) and now she is telling everyone she broke the engagement "for religious reasons".

I'd like your opinion - Cheyenne Disappointment.

Dear Cheyenne: Belle is telling the truth. She DID break the engagement for "religious reasons". The woman worships money and you don't have enough to suit her. (P.S. Consider yourself lucky. Belle was no bargain.)

Dear Ann: Since you are of the Jewish faith, perhaps you can explain something. The Old Testament advocates "an eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth". Isn't this a senseless method of getting even? If everyone practiced it, eventually we would have a world of blind and toothless people.

Can you explain why the wise men of those times advocated such harsh retaliation as compared with the New Testament's admonition to "turn the other cheek"? ... Want to Know More.

Dear Ann: "An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth" does not mean "do to him what he did to you". It means the punishment must never be more severe than the crime.

This admonition was given to the people at a time when cruel and inhuman punishment was inflicted on many who were guilty of minor offenses - for example, if a man stole a loaf of bread, he was sometimes put to death.

So you see, the "eye for an eye" precept was actually compassionate rather than punitive.

Dear Ann Landers: My cousin, who is a widow, lives a half block from me. We were never very close but we belong to the same card club and my husband and I take her to church every Sunday.

The man - has been visiting my cousin three times a week since a funeral that week it was four times. At first I thought it was very thoughtful of him, but it's been nearly 18 months now and my cousin has had plenty of time to learn how to handle her grief alone. (Also her marriage wasn't that terrific.)

There is quite a lot of gossip about the minister's car being parked out in front of her house so often and the talk about doing the church any good.

Should I speak to my cousin, to the minister, or to his wife? Several of us feel if the minister's wife were aware of what's going on he would behave differently. ... Not Blind And Not Dumb Either.

Dear N.B.: If the minister has been visiting this woman three times a week for 18 months his wife probably knows about it and is handling the matter in the way that suits her best. My advice is MYOUI.
