Sheridan wins two

The Sheridan Mens' basketball Bruins had a good week winning in their two outings.

They beat Niagara 62-50 in league action with Georgetown's Mark Reis and Andre Graovac leading the way with 16 points each.

Craovac scored 26 points later in the week when the Bruins beat Hyerson 76-26 in exhibition action.

Georgetown's Lisa Proulx is a member of the Sheridan women's team and they lost to Mohawk 81-51 in their game.

Mohawk's Linda Madden erupted for 47 points to break a record which had been established just the week before.

Lena Dimitrenko led the Sheridan scorers with 11.

Steve Blundy's women's hockey team was in action and they won two games in the same night.

On Friday they went up against St. Lawrence (Kingston) and beat them 7-2 with Amy Ramsay scoring the hat trick.

After they polished off the

After they polished them off the Pandas went up against St. Lawrence (Cornwall) and won 4-2. Not bad. Two victories in one night. Maybe Blundy can teach the Georgetown raiders that trick.

Court Rose

lose 6-0

The Georgetown Court Rose Intermediate Girls were shut-out 6-0 last week by Orangeville OPCC.

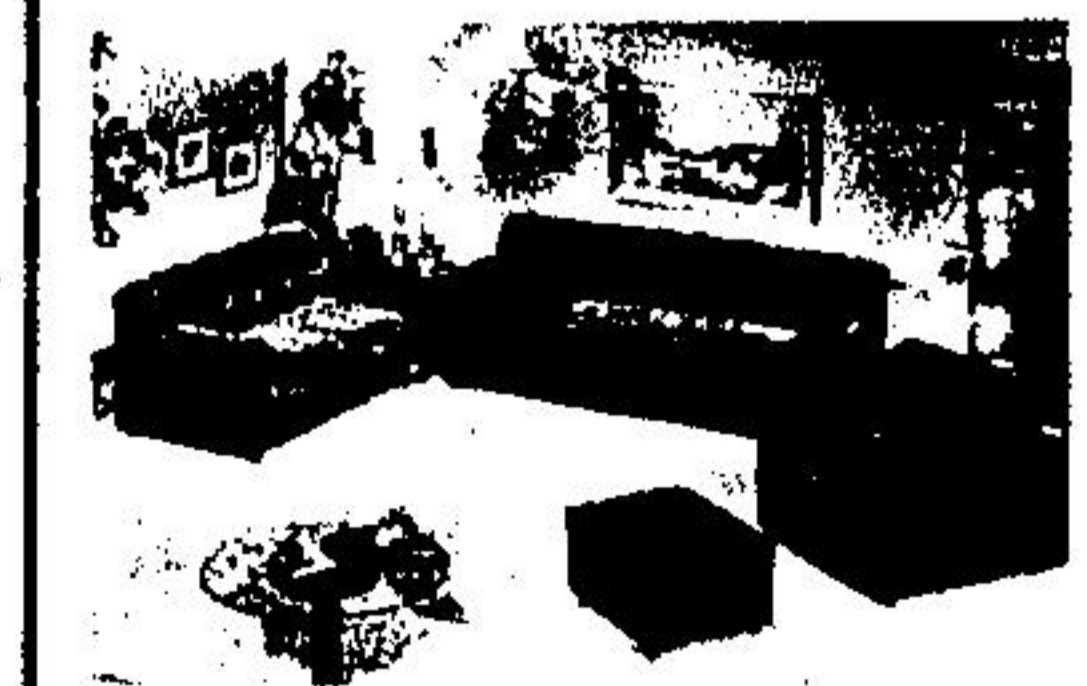

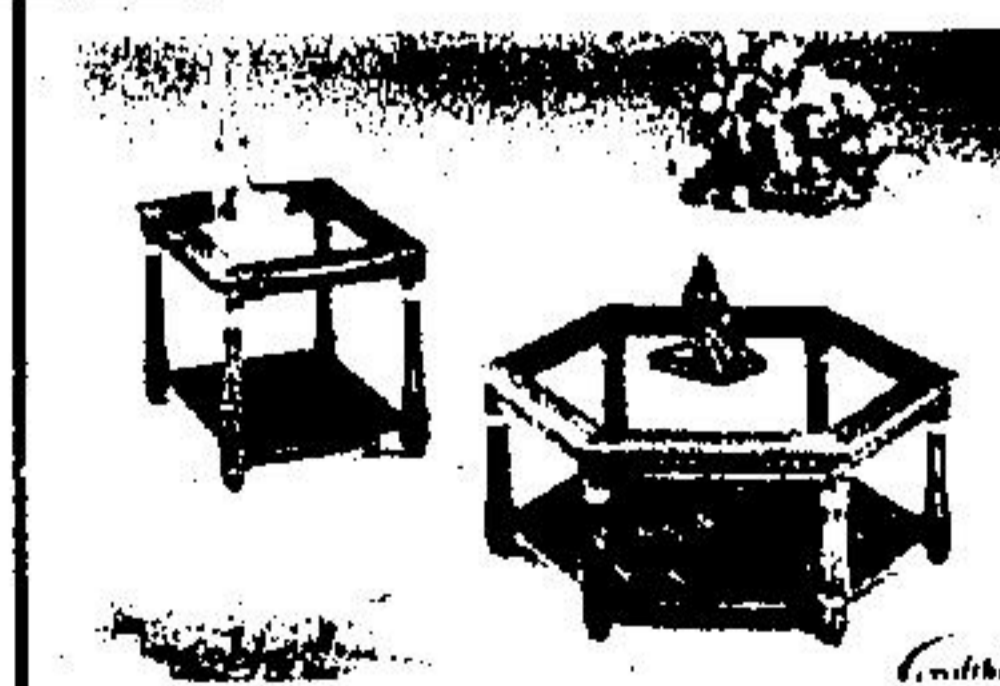

Michelle Fisher was in the Georgetown net and she played a solid game despite being beaten six times.

Orangeville took advantage of their size and experience to take the victory.
