

Limehouse Village neighbors express sympathy for A.C. Patterson

By MRS. A.W. BENTON
Herald correspondent
Our community was shocked on Dec. 27 to learn of the passing of Mr. A.C. Patterson following a severe stroke on Christmas night. We extend sympathy to his widow, their daughter Mrs. Wm. Henry, her husband and family and four brothers and their families.

The January meeting of Limehouse Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Benton on January 11, twelve attending and President Mrs. Booth in the chair. The meeting opened with "I'd like to teach the world to sing" and the Collect.

Roll call - A vanished landmark in our neighbourhood brought replies of - former Gowdy house, the unusual out-house there, now moved to Black Creek Village, the railway station, the stone school (S.S.No. 16), the Radial line, the elm trees and others.

A highlight of the meeting was the presentation of her life membership certificate and pin to Mrs. F.J. Brown by Mrs. Booth. Doris expressed her thanks.

Correspondence brought several thank you notes from recipients of Christmas treat boxes, a receipt for a donation to the Cancer Society as a memorial, an appeal from the Hospital for Sick Children Foundation, to which $25.00 was voted, notification of the 4-H course - accessories - the final touch to be led by Mrs. Anderson, and the Senior course in quilting to be led by Mrs. Hannah and Mrs. Moulden.

Short items from convenors of standing committees were heard. P.R.O. Mrs. Roughley read articles concerning the collection and use of Pennies for Friendship, whose aim is eight million pennies for eight million W.I. members throughout the world to teach and finance girls to later teach their country women back home.

Mrs. Anderson read "the Good Old Days" for the motto - he who forgets the past forgets the key to the future. She also displayed her pieced and quilted cushion which the W.I. has for sale. The Queen was sung in closing and the hostess served lunch. Mrs. Moulden extended courtesies.

Sorority discussion

By LANA BOMASUIT
The programme for the December 5th meeting of the Xi Delta Beta was "Careers". Guest speaker Mr. Art Harris Co-ordinator of Counselling for Sheridan College was introduced by Lori Ryan and Linda Mullen.

Mr. Harris spoke on the college programme to assist persons to find the right career by identifying their good qualities and learning to appreciate themselves. The counselling service at Sheridan College is available to everyone in the community.

Hostess Dorothy Zebedes and co-hostess Betty Naylor served refreshments while the Ways and Means Committee held a Christmas tree ornament bid. Each member provided an ornament and the highest bidder was the delighted recipient of a new ornament for her Christmas tree.

Xi Delta Beta ended the sorority year with a dinner held at Somewhere Else Restaurant. An evening of good food and friendship culminated with a secret sister Christmas gift exchange.

Lions help seniors

By RON LACEY
Georgetown Lions Club
The Georgetown Lions Club ended 1978 in a very good note in several senses of the word. They lived up to their motto "WE SERVE" by literally serving the senior citizens at supper and at their final meeting for the year by singing carols to thirty-six guests from C.N.I.B. The blind residents of the Halton Hills area were delighted with their supper and their entertainment.

The club is now planning its big project for 1979, "WINDFALL '79". This evenings entertainment, to be provided by "THE CARLTON SHOW BAND" on May 12th will, we hope, raise the final installment of the $15,000 pledge the Lions Club made to the Georgetown Memorial Arena Renovation Fund.

The Lions are also selling Stanley Cup Draw tickets and will also soon be selling "GLO-LITES" which is a low voltage house number light.

All the money raised in this fashion is spent assisting many groups within the community.

The Lions of Ontario, Quebec and Labrador will be convening in Niagara Falls in June and over 50,000 Lions from around the world will be congregating in Montreal in July. This will be a needed boost for the Canadian dollar, and every cent of this convention spending will be from the pockets of Lions and their relatives.

For further information about "WINDFALL '79" readers should watch for advertisements in later editions of this newspaper.

CHRISTMAS SEALS CONTRIBUTION

Halton Christmas Seal Campaign chairman Cec McFadden (left) watches as Jamie Baker, 8, of Moore Park Crescent presents a cheque for $29.35 to the campaign's honorary chairman well known radio commentator Bill McVean. The money was raised during a fund-raising day at the year's summer camp for asthmatic children and the youngsters wanted to add it to the campaign funds as their contribution to reaching the $95,000 target set by the Halton Lung Association for their Christmas Seal campaign. The campaign is about $5,000 below target and organizers hope residents will remember to send in their contributions before the campaign closes the end of January. Unless the target is met the Association may have to curtail or even drop some of its programs such as Asthma Day Camps, Asthma Conditioning Courses for children and adults, Smoking Withdrawal Clinics, and smoking education programs in schools.

Happy birthday Agnes McEnery

By WINIFRED SMITH
Herald correspondent
Family, friends and neighbours met together on Sunday afternoon to honour an esteemed lady in the person of Mrs. Agnes McEnery who was celebrating her 85th birthday.

The gathering took place at the home of her son Lloyd and daughter-in-law Irma. The dining room table was decked up with a beautiful lace cloth. It was centered with a beautifully decorated birthday cake and two lighted pink candles set in silver candlesticks which were placed on each side of the cake. Daughter, Jean King of Georgetown poured tea and two of the younger members of the family served refreshments to the guests. When it was time to serve the cake it was brought in to the guest of honour and Happy Birthday was sung, as she blew out the candles and cut the cake.

The occasion was a very happy one. Later in the evening there was a family dinner party at the same home.

Speaking of birthdays, six members of the Ballinafad W.I. all have January birthdays, including Mrs. Agnes McEnery, they are Ada Kirkwood, Lola Marshall, Eleanor McLean, Eileen McEnery and Reggie Slesorsalis. Many happy returns to you all.

Despite the threat of bad weather for the area on Sunday a goodly number braved the cold winds to attend the church service. Rev. Stiles delivered a good sermon, which was on the Parables from Luke entitled "Persistent Prayer". Next Sunday following the service the annual meeting will be held.

Lunch served to all in basement previous to meeting.

There was a fair attendance at the U.C.W. meeting on Tuesday, Jan. 9. It was held at the home of Mrs. Ernest McEnery. Mrs. Willa Shortill presided. Mrs. Alma Sinclair took the Devotional. Mrs. Gloria Johnson read the minutes of previous meeting and the financial statement ended 1978 was given by Mrs. Larose. A member of the Georgetown Contact Centre was the guest speaker at the meeting and told some interesting facts. Lunch committee assisted the hostess with the serving of a cup of tea and a social time followed.

We welcome some new comers in to our neighborhood: Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Woods are living in the home formerly owned by the Pabst family. They have two grown daughters, Hillary and Susan. Dr. and Mrs. Don Trant and three children moved from Georgetown and are now living on the 8th Line in what was formerly the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Black. The Wood family were former residents of Mississauga.

MEET THE PRESIDENT

BRIAN HILL

Brian Hill, president of the Georgetown Newfoundland Club, has been a member of the organization for four years. During that time he has served as dance committee chairman and head bartender for a number of their dances before he took the president's chair in July.

Mr. Hill is a Georgetown native, but he married a woman from Newfoundland and this entitles him to hold an executive position with the club. Anyone can join the club, he says, but the bylaws restrict the executive positions to Newfoundland natives or their spouses.

Mr. Hill and his wife Sheila, live on Charles Street with their three children. He is a personnel specialist with Northern Telecom Canada Ltd., in Brampton. In addition to his involvement with the club Mr. Hill has been a member of the Georgetown Volunteer Firefighters for six years.

He lists stock car racing and demolition derby races in particular as his hobby. He was the starter at different race tracks and competed in the World Championship Demolition Derby Races at Islip, New York three separate years.

Let's (try to) relax

By SUSAN DeFACENDIS
January is normally a rather placid, laid-back time of year. An opportunity to recapture one's energies and rue the previous month's excesses.

One depressingly sorts, and attempts to mislay, the deluge of post-Christmas bills that come pouring through the mails, (the one time of year you can guarantee receiving it on time) proving without a doubt that serooges do exist to spoil the memories of a festive holiday season.

ICY VIEW
Shivering, the icy view from the window causes one to question why we every attempted to dispute the Indians for possession of this uncommensurably frigid piece of land.

Heck, if our forebearers were determined to go to that much trouble to resettle, why didn't they make it worthwhile to future generations and overrun Hawaii, thus making the first Thanksgiving dinner a pineapple?

One can only assume it was during the months of July or August that these hardy souls first set foot on Canadian soil. If it had been a January, surely they would have displayed enough sense to up-anchor in a hurry and sail off to seek a more temperate climate.

The first winter must have come as quite a shock to them.

"ere, 'enry! Turn up the blinkin' eat in this cabin - the water pipes is frozen again. Can't make me afternoon cuppa Red Rose - and don't give me no, wot a pity, neither."

"Cor blimey, 'enry! The snow's over the top of me wellies, 'ow do I get the dustbins outside? Don't seem British some'ow."

"Ey, 'enry! Get your blunderbuss. There's a bloomin' minority group wearin' feathers out 'ere, tryin' to steal our 'ens."

CAN'T UNDERSTAND
"ere, 'enry! There's a bloke at the door with a sign saying 'Libro Quebec. Can't understand a word 'e's sayin'. Thought you said this place would be quiet: place is overrun with foreigners already."

"D'yer think the blinkin' Pony Express is on strike again? I 'aven't 'eard from me mum in weeks."

"No, 'enry! 'ow many times 'ave I told you, I won't 'ave yer pets in the 'ouse. I still say a cow belongs in a barn."

Well, what kind of column did you expect in a Canadian January, anyway? My brain may thaw out by June.....
