Minor Midgets comeback to win

After being surprised 6-4 by Dundas in the first game of their OMHA playdown round, the Georgetown Labelmasters Ltd. Minor Midgets came back to win the second game 7-3 in the best of five series. In league action Georgetown were 5-3 victims of a good Burlington squad.

The 6-4 Dundas win marked the first time this season they have defeated Georgetown.

Mark Hamilton scored two of the Georgetown goals in the hard-fought contest with Tom Cull and Pat Tunney collecting singles.

Chris Peavoy and Brad McMeekin had two assists each with Kevin Stewart and Cull getting one each.

Georgetown bounced back and overpowered Dundas in the second game with Peavoy leading the way with two goals and an assist.

Single markers in the game went to Stewart, Hamilton, McMeekin, Tunney and Brad Nicolucci.

Cull was the playmaker on three of the goals with Scott Brush helping out on two. Brian Ward, Stewart, Gerry Milne and Bob Davey had one assist each.

The third game of the best of five series will be here tomorrow night beginning at 8:45 p.m.

Against Burlington the scorers were Stewart, Hamilton and Peavoy. Collecting assists were Hamilton, Peavoy, Stewart, Warren Crawford, Cull and Tunney.

Firefighters ready to wrap up

The Georgetown McNally construction and Firefighters Major Atoms led their OMHA series against Dundas two games to none after 4-3 and 5-2 wins. The third game was here last night so it may be all over.

In other action the Major Atoms came up big against Acton winning 8-3.

In the 4-3 win over Dundas Mike Hurley, who has been a tower of strength lately, led the way with a goal and three assists. His linemate Mark Howie also had a good game scoring once and adding an assist. The other goals went to Pat Braund, who also had an assist, and Jon Hammer.

Chris Hodgins helped the cause with one assist.

It was a very tight checking game with the Atoms going up against good goal-keeping on the part of Dundas' George Benton.

The game was tied 3-3 when Braund bounced one in from behind the net for the winner.

In the second game of the series Dundas scored first, but the Major Atoms stormed back and controlled the play throughout the contest.

Hurley scored a goal and added two assists to lead the attack again. The other goals were scored by Chris Stevens with his first of the year,

Brian Doherty, Hammer and Braund.

Mark Pries set up two of the goals with Dean Irvine, Hodgins and Gord Paterson all helping out on one each.

Howie and Braund both had excellent outings against Acton. Howie scored twice and had three assists and Braund tallied twice with the same number of assists. Hurley stayed hot with one goal and three assists.

The other markers went to Doherty, Hodgins and Neal White. Mike Teetzel and Paterson had two assists each.

Acton took quite a few penalties in this game and the Major Atoms made them pay the price for most of them by capitalizing.

Midgets handle Dundas in first two matches

The Georgetown Sunny Acre Farms Major Midgets will try and wrap up their OMHA playdowns series tomorrow night in Dundas after taking the first two games by 7-3 and 5-1 scores.

The first game, played in Dundas, saw Georgetown erupt for four goals in the second period and two more in the third to easily take the win.

Phil Milne scored the only goal of the first period with Kevin Thompson and Steve Robbins drawing the assists.

Dan Reynolds opened the scoring in the second period with Bob Dean and Bill Wheeler assisting. Wheeler then scored from John Thorpe and Paul Stevens. Scott Osborne scored the eventual winner from Steven and Dean finished the period's scoring from Wheeler and Reynolds.

In the third period Robbins scored from Thompson and Dean got his second of the game with Milne and Reynolds drawing the assists.

It was a different script in the second game as the Major Midgets ran away with it scoring three goals in the first period.

Herb Kewley opened the scoring for Georgetown with defenseman Dave Pilote drawing the assist.

Thompson made it 2-0 when he converted on a play set up by Robbins.

Wheeler scored the final Georgetown goal of the first period with Milne and Reynolds assisting.

Georgetown added two more goals in the second period. Russ Power got the first one from Tom Simpson and Thompson got the second from Robbins and Kewley.

Georgetown will be trying to wrap up the series in three straight games when it resumes in Dundas tomorrow night.
