

Wrestlers take first at Ottawa meet

The GDHS wrestling Rebels continued their winning ways by taking top honors at a tournament in Ottawa over the weekend. The meet was held at J.S. Woodsworth in the nation's capital.

Four Rebels won in individual categories as Georgetown claimed a second victory over powerful Smith Falls. They had also defeated them at the Rebel Invitational.

"Smith Falls will be tough by the time OFSAA rolls around," said coach Bob McKay. "They had a few injuries and they always peak for OFSAA."

The four Rebels winning their divisions were Chuck Anderson at 84 pounds, Jim Wittmeier at 90.5, Frank Miedzinski at 112 and Peter Fournier at 127.

SURPRISE WINNER

Wittmeier's victory surprised McKay as the grade nine student never wrestled before this year.

"Jim has just come out of the woodwork," the coach said. "He has been the most pleasant surprise on this year's team so far."

McKay said Miedzinski was excellent in winning his division.

"Frank beat Mike Payette, one of the toughest competitors, 1-0 in a great match," McKay said. "Frank will be very tough at OFSAA."

Fournier (the defending OFSAA champ at 114) wrestled for the last time this season at 127. From now on he will be at 119.

McKay said that Fournier had no problems handling the bigger wrestlers at Ottawa.

"No one came close to touching Peter up there," McKay said. "He'll be awfully tough to handle at 119, but anyone can beat."

Joe Ibuki had another excellent meet finishing second at 119. He'll wrestle at 112 the rest of the season.

Ibuki finished second to Ottawa's Norm Barton, who is undefeated so far this year.

"It was the match of the day," said McKay. "It ended in a 4-4 tie, but Baron won on technicals."

The coach said that Ibuki has matured considerably over last year and that he will be a load to handle at OFSAA.

Rookie Mike Wreblewski was another second place finisher in the 97 pound class. His only loss came by a 5-3 score.

Mike Taylor, coming off an injury, finished second to teammate Wittmeier at 90.5.

Kevin Brown finished second at 141 pounds with his only loss coming to Claude Daoust, a two-time defending OFSAA champion.

THREE FOURTHS

The Rebs also had three fourth place finishers: Ron Martin at 104, Bill Davis at 119 and Rick Widmont at 149.

McKay said that Widmont a rookie has been one of the hardest workers on the team and that he should be a top wrestler next year.

The Rebels are now preparing for the Haltons and Peel-Haltons. Both those meets will be here. The Haltons on February 14 and the Peel-Haltons on February 22.

The coach said he expects his main competition in the Haltons to come from White Oaks and in the Peel-Haltons Erindale may give the Rebels some trouble. However, if all goes as expected the Rebels should take team honors in both meets.

When the season began McKay was very apprehensive about making predictions as to where he expected his Rebels to finish. He says now his team has come a long very well and he wants to be in at the least the top five or six teams at OFSAA. "At the beginning of the year we had an unknown community," McKay said. "We have come a long very well and I expect that we will do quite well in the meets left."
