

Sports Flashback: Mac's Milk upset in semis

Taken from the February 8, 1973 edition of The Herald.
Mac's Milk has tossed a spanner into Norval Alouette's hopes for a sweep of the Georgetown Industrial Hockey League semi-final.

Norval, which finished in first place during the regular season, slumped badly in the first game of the semi-final as the milkmen skated to an easy 7-3 win.

Joe Widdus led the attack for the milkmen as he tallied a hat trick. The other winner's goals went to Bob Johnson, John Parks, Dave Raymer and Bob Harrison. Alex Smith assisted on four goals.

The Alouettes goals were scored by Max Korzack who had two and Benny Heppes with one.

In the other semi-final North Halton Cougars hammered Glen Williams 9-1.

Al Arnold, Jack Kemshead and Bill Dwyer had two goals each for North Halton. Singles were scored by Brad Johnson, Jack Gudgeon and Dwayne Hay.

An unassisted goal by Doug Hills late in the game kept the Glen from being whitewashed.

A rink of young Georgetown curlers have won the District title in Junior girls Tankard play and have their sights set on southern Ontario honors which will be played in Lindsay, March 19.

The North Halton Curling Club based rink has Jane McNally at skip, vice Gail Young, second Lynne Anderson and lead Brenda Hulme.

Tony Zillo of Terra Cotta has won the men's singles handicap tournament at the Lucky Strike Club, topping 65 competitors to the Lucky Strike Trophy. Runnerup was Vic Gunn.

And a few tidbits from Along the Boards column of the February 2, 1949 issue of The Herald. (The writer is Wheldon Emmerson).

Happened to be in Acton the following morning after Georgetown had again whipped Acton 6-1 in intermediate play. The main alibi was "our boys are out of condition". That wasn't their theme after beating Georgetown in the Sheehey Tost series.

Delly Beaumont, Chappel and Nash were outstanding against Acton during the last game. Delly picked up four points on the evening's play.

Ball Hockey registering

The Halton Hills Ball Hockey League is now accepting applications from persons or companies planning on entering teams for the 1979 season.

Doug Pemberton, new president of the league, said he would like to receive the applications as soon as possible.

"We got a late start last season," Pemberton said. "This year I want to get started on it as quickly as possible."

The league had six teams competing last year with Pemberton's Fortamix outfit being the eventual league champions.

The league is affiliated with the Ontario Ball Hockey Association and there will be several tournaments and a provincial championship round throughout the summer.

Liberal Executive

The majority of the members of the executive of the Brampton-Georgetown Federal Liberal Association were re-elected to their posts at the annual meeting in Brampton last night.

Only one new person was elected to a post in the ten-member executive. The previous member, Lynn Callahan, declined nomination because she took the job as campaign manager for Ross Milne, MP for Peel-Dufferin-Simcoe. Jennifer Coates was elected to the vacated position of vice-president, organisation.

Re-elected president was Ron Nelson. Executive vice-president is Frank Allen. Secretary is Marta Burka. Treasurer is Adib Abdel-Shehid. Vice-president, committees, is Margaret Whittaker. Vice-president, Bramalea, is Doreen Leithwood. Vice-president, Brampton, is Sam Stubbs. Vice-president, Georgetown, is Alice Walker. Vice-president, rural is George Henderson.
