

Three close games highlight GIHL play

Three very close games were featured in Georgetown Industrial Hockey League action Sunday. In the big game first place Norval nipped second place Philip Publishing 2-1. In the other games, which were more important in that they involved teams battling for playoff position, Way-Jay and United Rent-All tied 4-4 and the Caledon Chiefs, the team on the move, edged DeBoer's Movers 3-2.

Louis D'Orazio opened the scoring for Philip against Norval less than three minutes into the game. John Quackenbush assisted.

At the 6:58 mark of the first, Blake Inglis tied the score for Norval with Dave Holmes and Bill Kirby assisting. Before the period was over Doug Anderson notched the winner from Holmes and Ray Inglis.

There was no scoring in the final 40 minutes with both teams playing it tight and tough.

In the Way-Jay - United contest it was close all the way. Neither team ever had more than a one-goal edge.

Scoring for United were Rob Harrison, with two, Crawford Bell, Jerry Giroux.

Bob Landry had two to lead Way-Jay with singles going to Brad Butterworth and Greg Bodnar. Dwayne Hay set up three goals and Max Korzack two.

DeBoer's scored twice in the final period, but it proved to be too little and too late.

The Chiefs had built up a 3-0 lead on goals by Steve Rowland, John Thompson and Kevin Judge. Rod Halls set up two of them.

Doug Barnes of DeBoer's scored both third period goals.

As it stands now DeBoer's and United will miss the playoffs. However, both clubs are only two points out of fourth position and four out of third.

Next week Way-Jay, at present holding fourth, must face Norval so DeBoer's and United can both pick up some ground. United has the tougher chore to go up against Philip.

IN THE PIT

The action was rough in Norval's 2-1 win over Philip Publishing Sunday. Here Norval captain Ray Inglis makes Philips Don Parsons pay the price for standing in front of the offensive net.

Labelmasters take playdown series

The Georgetown Labelmasters Ltd. Minor Midgets won a hard-fought OMHA playdown series against Dundas with victories in two of three games last week.

After dropping the first of

Cager Rebs win

The GDHS Midget Boys basketball team won their first game of the season against a powerful squad earlier this week in Milton by a 31-29 score.

There was little scoring in the first three quarters with both teams showing good ball control but the Rebs had the edge when it came to team play.

It was not until the fourth quarter when Georgetown really blew the game open and took an eight point lead near the 10-minute mark.

Then Milton came back which made for a close and exciting finish with the Rebs squeezing out a 31-29 victory.

"It was our best game of the season and it was full of action throughout the game."

Shawn Hutt stated who is one of the team leaders.

The leading scorers for Georgetown were Shawn Hutt with 12, John Scott and Mike Ash with seven and John Pressault with two.

the three games 7-3, the Labelmasters came back to take the next two by close 2-1 and 5-4 scores.

The Dundas victory put them up two games to one, so Georgetown was up against it in the final two games, having to win both or face elimination.

Scoring in a losing cause for Georgetown were Bob Davey, Kevin Stewart and Brad McMeekin. Chris Peavoy had two assists and Pat Tunney picked up one.

In the 2-1 Georgetown win which tied the series at two wins each Mark Dodge was excellent in goal for the Labelmasters.

The goal scorers for Georgetown in this one were Peavoy and Gerry Milne. Davey, Tom Cull and Brad Nicolucci had assists.

Five different shooters accounted for the five Georgetown goals in the rubber match. However, it was 100 per cent team effort that spelled victory. The players stayed out of the penalty box and played hockey throughout the game.

The scorers were Stewart, Peavoy, Cull, Mark Hamilton and Tunney. Assists went to Warren Crawford, Cull, McMeekin and Davey.

The team's next OMHA series will be against Owen Sound.
