Vacation Guide

How to make travel worry-free

Thinking about a new way to see America this summer? Whether it's the national parks of the west, Nashville's Opryland and the surrounding Kentucky Bluegrass area, or the historic cities of Boston or Philadelphia, you can do so in comfort on one of Continental Trailways' luxurious guided tours.

More than 300 different itineraries with 1200 departure dates are offered annually on Trailways Silver Eagle motorcoaches. Last year alone, over two million people saw America with Trailways.

In 1977, the longest tour will be a 39-day coast-to-coast extravaganza. Short one-, two-, and three-day trips are also available.

Some interesting choices for summer travel are the New Orleans Holiday, the Golden West and Great Southwest, Colonial Williamsburg, the Smokies, and New England.

Other tours include the Grand Ole Opry in Nashville, Christmas shopping trips to New York City, and sightseeing trips through Virginia, Canada and Alaska during the prettiest seasons of the year.

Unlike railroads and airplanes, the motorcoach travels the most scenic routes at a leisurely pace. Eight hours per day, including meal stops, is the maximum that a tour spends on the road.

At night, you stay at a quality hotel or motel where the tour guide takes care of all arrangements, including baggage handling and tipping.

Certain meals are included in the itinerary and package price, but you also have the opportunity to try out interesting restaurants on your own.

Tours usually originate at hotels in cities serviced by Continental. If you do not live in a departure city of the tour you wish to take, a Continental Trailways tour agent will arrange for your transportation and any additional hotel accommodations necessary.

Grand Ole Opry Needs Your Help

You and millions of others could be deprived of ever again hearing the Grand Ole Opry live on radio.

The Federal Communications Commission is considering staff recommendations that could seriously reduce the coverage of the nation's clear channel radio stations. If this happens, listeners will no longer be able to hear the live Grand Ole Opry every Friday and Saturday night. The Grand Ole Opry has regular listeners in 34 states that tune in to the show every week and fans that have written letters from all 50 states and many foreign countries. One of the reduced coverage proposals of the F.C.C. would mean that nobody who lives or travels more than 100 miles from Nashville could hear the live Opry. That could, in effect, mean the end of the Grand Ole Opry after 53 years of continuous broadcasting.

Your comments could keep the Opry in its present form for future generations. If you listen to other WSM night-time programs, please mention it in your comments also. Thank you for your interest in the Opry.

Please write directly to the F.C.C. or to the Opry. We will forward your letter along with others. Write to:
