

Former pro scored winner to end season

For most of the year Gordon has played on a line with Juri Kudrasovs and Ray Tonelli. To say that the three are awesome together is understating their talents. Their most impressive showing together came in a game in Dundas against the Merchants.

In the contest the Raiders fell behind 5-0, but stormed back to take the victory in overtime. The comeback was led by the Kudrasovs trio who owned the puck.
Like Tonelli and Kudrasovs, Gordon put in some time in the professional ranks.

As property of the Chicago Black Hawks he played both in Dallas (Central League) and Flint (International League).

Gordon closed out an excellent regular season by scoring the winning goal against Dundas Friday night.

Members of the Raider executive said other players seriously considered for top player in February were defencemen Ron Twiss and John Boyce and Ray Tonelli, who won in October. Other winners have been Kudrasovs (November), Ray Evans (December) and Peter McDuffe (January).

Stan valuable man in Raider game plan

The term "unsung hero" is over used and very often misused.

However, when it comes to discussing the likes of Stan Laruso the term is very appropriate.

Stan is one of the people who have the Georgetown Raiders a very successful Intermediate "A" franchise. This year Stan is the Booster Club Chairman.

It is the latest in a line of positions Stan has held with the team in the past few years.

In each position he has held, Stan has given it a total effort and has been one of the reasons that the club has grown to point it is at this year. This has been one of the Raiders' most successful years in their history.

Aside from being one of the team's workers, Stan is also one of the team's biggest fans. He often attends away games and can also be seen at games not involving the Raiders on scouting trips.

Stan is also an active athlete, being part of a top bowling team in Brampton as well as playing hockey in the non-contact league.

If there was a non-playing Raider all-star team selected Stan Laruso would certainly have a spot on the squad.
