Georgetown's Neal White goes to the ice after taking a crushing elbow from this Chinguacousy player. No penalty was called on the play. Georgetown skated to two easy wins over Chinguacousy in Tri-county Major Atom playoff play.

Major Atoms a hot team

The Georgetown Firefighters and McNally Construction Major Atoms were red-hot last week taking three convincing victories.

The Atoms dumped Ancaster 8-2, defeated Chinguacousy 3-1 and shutout the same team 7-0.

In the victory against Ancaster Mike Hurley, who has been a tower of strength in recent action, led the way with four goals and three assists.

Mark Howie also had an excellent outing scoring two and also helping to set up three more.

The other goals went to Mark Pries, who also had an assist, and Neal White. Mike Teetzel, Gord Paterson, Chris Hodgins, Jon Hammer and Chris Stevens each had an assist.

In the first win against Chinguacousy Howie had two goals and Hurley one goal and two assist. Danny Kent, Chris Hodgins, and Billy Ward all had one assist each.

Hurley maintained his torrid pace in the shutout victory scoring twice and adding the same number of assists.

Pat Braund also had two goals and also picked up one assist. Single goals went to Howie, Ward and Kent. Hammer had two assists as did Teetzel and Dean Irvine, Paterson and Mark Pries each had one assist.
