

Strong showing by Georgetown bowlers

Brent Osatchuk, Star of Master-Bantam
 Brent Osatchuk, Georgetown, won the trophy for high triple flat for boys at the Master-Bantam zone finals last Sunday at Hopedale Lanes in Oakville.
 However, he was also the top qualifier for the high single flat and high single pins over average, but by the rules he could only accept the highest award.
 This allowed Barry McLean, a Georgetown Bowl pee wee to take the high single pins-over-average trophy by virtue of his 211 for a 103 pins over season's average.
 The highest team effort was by Andrew Payne and Tammy Wood with Master Roger Gervais, the winner in the Master-Junior.
 Near the end of the tournament he almost pulled it off by rolling six consecutive strikes but was stopped dead by a head-pin.
 His average for 6 games was 250. The winners in this event was the team from Acton, Brian Mandarino, Barbara Dunn and Master Sylvia Mages.

Exceptional individual efforts were put in by Brent Osatchuk 182, pins over average, Anthony Larsen 168, Barry McLean 160, Nicky Varricchio 159, Julie Ferraro 147, David Varricchio 141, Kim Wright 129, Beth Gibbs 119, and many others in the nineties.
 Georgetown teams made a strong showing with none falling in the minus category. Andrew Payne, Tammy Wood, Roger Gervais (M) 387 over; Paul Tufford, Kim Wright, Freida Handy (M) 319; Brent Osatchuk, Tammy Switzer, Anne Nicholson (M) 275; Anthony Larsen, Debbie Sibbald, Charlene McCormack (M) averaged 257, 275; Nicky Varricchio, Denis Alton, Joan Archibald (M) 220; Ron Campbell, Julie Ferraro, George Archibald (M) 209; David Varricchio, Kim Klein, Chris Burke (M) 150; Jimmy Tooby, Debbie Reid, Shirley Chaplin (M) 98; Barry McLean, Toni McClements, Joan Richardson (M) 92; Kirk Dafeo, Cherie McElroy, Marg Bratkin (M) (averaged 247) 80; Phillip Hughes, Elizabeth Gibbs, George Barber (M)

40; Stephen Curran, Sandra Weeks, Gary Hole (M).
McDonald's Bowler of the Week
 Margaret Zebedee, a junior girl, rolled a 249 in her second game to beat her average for 3 games by a total of 243. This won her the McDonald's "Bowler of the Week" plaque for the central Ontario zone.
 Jane Hicks places second during February to win a consolation prize of a "Big Mac" dinner. "Big Mac winners in the bantams were Debbie Sibald and Darren McCallum.
Y.B.C. Provincials
 Scarborough Ont. will host the Y.B.C. "4 Steps to Stardom" Provincial Championships this Sunday, March 18th.
 In this the third step, Georgetown is proud to have six competitors.
 Bantam girl Julie McCorry bowling as the singles' zone champion and the junior boys teams of Billy Hay, Jerome Stone, Robbie Quinton, Charlie Weatherall and Phillip Handy will strive to win the right to represent Southern Ontario at the Nationals in Richmond Delta, B.C.

Nine Straight Strikes
 Glen Collier during Y.B.C. senior play rolled 9 consecutive strikes for a game total of 370 to take over the high single from Grant Richardson (344). He also beat Grant's triple 832 with a score of 849. Other high scores were: Grant Richardson (752)251, Kelvin Dafeo
