

Firefighters top Chinguacousy

The Georgetown Firefighters and McNally Construction major atom hockey team defeated Chinguacousy 4-2 for the third game straight in the Tri-County playoffs. Chinguacousy are now eliminated from playoff action. Chinguacousy were leading the game two goals to one, however, Pat Braund of Georgetown put the puck past the goalie to tie the game. Georgetown's marksmen put the puck between the poles two more times to take the game, the last goal of the game being shot into an empty Chinguacousy net. Sharing the scoring honors for Georgetown's major atoms were Jon Hammer, Mike Hurley, Pat Braund, and Mark Pries, each firing past Chinguacousy's goalie once each.

Neal White, Danny Kent, Gord Patterson and Scott Campbell also helped Georgetown eliminate Chinguacousy, each assisting once.

Hammer was also credited with two assists in the victory, while Hurley and Braund got one assist each.

The major atoms will face off against either Dundas or Streetsville in the next series of the playoffs.

DRG set for games

The Georgetown DRG Stationery major bantam hockey team are ready and looking forward to playing in this week's International Bantam Hockey Tournament, according to coach Jack Gudgeon.

Gudgeon hopes that his team will go further in the tournament this year than they managed last year. In last year's tournament Gudgeon was coaching the minor bantams. The Georgetown minor bantams went as far as the second round before they were put out. Their last game went into triple overtime.

"I think we'll do better this year than we did before," said Gudgeon. "The kids will feel more at home out on the ice in the tournament this year because they had experience last year in the 'D' division as minor bantams. I just want to make it further than we did last year."

Some of the stronger teams, such as Barrie, who are entered in the tournament may not be able to play, according to Gudgeon. If a team is still involved in OHS playoff play, that team can't compete in the International Bantam Hockey Tournament.

Gudgeon's lineup for the tournament will be as follows: Jeff Watterworth will be the likely starter in goal, with Shaun Glassford backing him up. Peter Haller and Kirk Warnock will be paired up on defense along with Mike Doucette and Ken Ward. Jamie South is the fifth defenseman, Gordie Adams, Paul White, and Bob Morrow will work together on forward, along with the lineup of Riv Kennedy, Anthony Oram and Mike Marcolini. Kevin Frank, Duane Hatcher and David Norton will make up the third forward line.

Blizzard draftee

Gord Miller, one of the top all-round athletes at GDHS will spend the next two weeks in Dun Ede, Florida.

Miller was one of the nine players secured by the Toronto Blizzards of the North American soccer league in their draft held earlier this year in New York.

Miller left with other members of the team on Monday, March 12 to attend their training camp in Florida.

The team is expected to be made up of approximately 45 players.

"I practiced for the last two months with some of the players inside a gym in Toronto, and the scouts felt I was good enough to take to Florida," Miller said.

Miller was drafted in the third round of the annual draft along with only three other Canadians.
