

United Rent-all defeated in bid to defend title

The Georgetown United Rent-All Minor Pee Wees season came to an end last week with two close losses to Richmond Hill in OMHA play. Richmond Hill took the series three games to one.

After the two teams split the first two games of the series Richmond Hill took 4-2 and 4-3 victories last week. In the 4-2 loss played here last Tuesday, Georgetown fell behind after Richmond Hill scored twice in the first period.

Early in the second period Wayne Morrow and Keith Rieger scored goals 13 seconds apart to notch the score for Georgetown. Drawing assists were Danny King, Glenn Leslie, Todd Cull and Brent Smith.

Centennial boys' team defeated

McKenzie-Smith Middle School triumphed over Centennial in the semi-final round of the North Halton public school boys basketball championship, 20-16.

Blake Harrison played exceptionally well for Centennial, according to coach Gary Southworth.

John Kwiatkowski, Mark Walker, Ken Cavanaugh, Cliff Nibbs, and Scott Allonby all put in good performances for McKenzie-Smith.

E.C. Drury school went on to win the North Halton championship, defeating McKenzie-Smith 21-16.

McKenzie-Smith coach Ron Turner told The Herald that he was proud of the performance his team put in.

However, it did not take long for Richmond Hill to get those markers back. They scored two goals of their own before the second period was five minutes old. There was no scoring the rest of the way.

In the final game at Richmond Hill Mike O'Brien, on a play set up Rieger and King, put Georgetown on the board first.

Later in the first frame Richmond Hill came back to tie the score, but before it was over Rieger tallied from Scott Farley and Leslie and Georgetown was in the lead again.

Richmond Hill drew even with the only goal of second period and then scored two more early in the third to go up.

Georgetown fought back valiantly, but were only able to put one of the markers back on the board. Leslie was the marksman with Cull and Smith drawing the assists.

Manager Brian James said that defenseman Stephen Marcolini, Morrow, King, Rieger and O'Brien were all outstanding. Morrow missed the last game of the series due to an injury.

After Richmond Hill took the first game of the series 7-0, Georgetown bounced back with a convincing 5-1 triumph in the second encounter. As it turned out the win was Georgetown's only one of the series.

The minor pee wees are the only Georgetown team that was defending an OMHA title. They took the zone one title last year.

However, this year as minor pee wees they were not competing in zones. Considering that fact the minor pee wees did very well to go into the third round of the playoffs.
