

Atom Selects defeat opponents

In two exhibition games last week, against Streetsville Atom Selects and Georgetown Minor Atom Reps, Georgetown's Atom Selects finished with two wins.

Town drew met up with Streetsville to defeat them 7-2. Georgetown was up for this game because this team had beaten Rent-All by one shot in the 4-Town tournament the last weekend.

After Streetsville took a 1-0 lead early in the game the Atom Select team came back to tie the game. Near the end of the first period, Georgetown scored once again. In the second period, the Rent-All team scored three times and in the third twice. Goal scorers were Heath Lockhurst, Brent Hutt 2, Bob Klavkals, Brian Peacock, Brad Klavkals and Steve McCarthy. Rory Kennedy, Brad Klav-kals 2, Hutt, Mike Tyler, Lockhurst 2, and Terry Padle assisted. Howard Green played well as netminder while the Atom Selects put forth a good team effort.

The two other goals were scored by Rich Chiovitti in the third period. Brian Peacock helped him out on one goal.

The Georgetown Select team was outshot but not outscored. Howard Green played extremely well in net receiving a shutout.

Georgetown Minor Atom Reps challenged the 4-town team in the second game to lose 3-0. Near the end of the first period, Rory Kennedy scored for the Selects with an assist going to Steve McCarthy.

The coaching staff consisting of Tom Davidson, Scott Pentesco and Dawn Pentesco were pleased with the team play.

Georgetown PeeWees take deciding game of series with Guelph

In playoff action, the Georgetown Standard Products major pee wee hockey team edged out Guelph 4-3 on March 8. The victory will advance Georgetown into the semi-finals, where they will meet Brampton. Georgetown and Guelph had tied during the first two games of the three game series, then Standard Products took the deciding game on home ice. Andy Fisher scored the first goal for Georgetown with the assist coming from Derek Roy and Rich Ward. Gary Robertson and Derek Roy brought the puck up the ice, setting up Robby Wilkes for the second Georgetown marker. Joe Richardson put one between the poles with help from Mark Webster and John Hodgson. The last Georgetown goal was scored by Jeff Stevens. His winning goal was assisted by Joe Richardson. Minding the net for Standard Products was James Poirier. Mike Daquano and Pat Brooker proved strong players on the wings, while Kent Falby and Scott Taggart played well on defense.

Juveniles lose, end season

The Georgetown Rotary International juvenile hockey team lost 6-4 to Orillia, to end their season with three losses against Orillia in playoff action.

Hubert and Paul Girgray. On the second marker Dwyer was helped by Jeff Richardson and Girgray.

Orillia led 2-0 at the end of the first period, but Georgetown came back in the second, scoring three goals to Orillia's one, and tying the game up at 3-3.

Girgray also added one for Georgetown, assisted by Chris Mauder and Mark Brabant.

The score was advanced to 4-4 in the third period, with only a couple of minutes to go, when Orillia poured on the power to take the game and the series.

Richardson and Hubert brought the puck up the ice, setting up Georgetown's last goal, scored by Bruce McCandless.

Eddie Dwyer fired two shots into the net to lead the Rotary scorers. He was assisted on the first goal by Jeff Coach Bob Wray said after the game that his team "ran out of gas, but we didn't stop working. We went out with dignity, we played with class".

The Georgetown Rotary Internationals did not receive one penalty in the third period.
