

Local boys play in Halton Classic

Two players from the GDHS Rebels boys basketball team were selected to play in the Second Halton Classic basketball game.

The players, Steve Kealick and Bill Rivers, will play for Halton East in the all-star match-up.

The game will be played at Nelson High School in Burlington on March 30, at 7:30 p.m. Admission is one dollar per person and all the proceeds will be donated to the Halton Association for the Mentally Retarded.

Players for the Halton East team will be: Steve

Keslick, Brent Ross (Georgetown), Dave Dempster, David Spiers (Oakville-Trafalgar), Fred Murrell, Jeff Lethbridge (T.A. Blakelock), Gord Buch, Benny Molfetta

(Queen Elizabeth Park), Jim Findlay and Jeff Mailow (White Oaks). WJ Phillips of Queen Elizabeth Park High School will coach the eastern team.

Jim Noble of Nelson High School will coach the western team.
