

Raiders take series four straight

The Georgetown Raiders swept to victory in their series with the Fort Erie Frontiers, taking three games in a row, 8-4, 8-3 and 11-5.

In Georgetown's March 13 game, played in Fort Erie, the Raiders held down the home team and took the game handily by a score of 8-4.

The game was close in the first period, with both teams scoring twice. Georgetown pulled ahead in the second, hitting three more times to the Frontiers one goal. Fort Erie scored once more in the third while the Raiders repeated their performance in the second, adding three more goals to their total.

Captain Ray Tonelli started the scoring for Georgetown at 7:51 of the first, on a pass from Peter Sturgeon and John Boyce.

Fort Erie sent the next two goals between the poles. Captain Dan Blair and Roger Simons brought the puck up the ice, setting up Gary Hill's goal.

Blair then turned around and fired the puck past Peter McDuffe to pull the Frontiers ahead of the Raiders. He was helped out by assistant coach Owen Held and Hill.

Raiders assistant captain Tom Daley charged up the ice along with Terry Porter and Ron Twiss and popped the puck past goalie Myles Bosnak to even up the game.

Georgetown took control of the game in the second, with Tonelli scoring the first marker of the period on a pass from Ray Evans.

Hill of the Frontiers made an attempt to tie up the game in the second when he scored from Roger Simons and Jack Ashworth.

Georgetown answered by knocking two more markers into the net.

Twiss scored the first on a pass from Ron Fogal, while the next marker was slapped by Evans. He was assisted by John Boyce and Sturgeon.

STRONG THIRD PERIOD

The Raiders came back just as strongly in the third, scoring two goals in the first four minutes of play.

At 3:25 of the third, Chis Milne fired the puck by Bosnak to add another point to the Raiders total. Sturgeon and Pat Maloney were cautioned with the assist.

Maloney scored Georgetown's seventh marker 23 seconds later, on a pass from Terry Porter.

Fort Erie came back to score one more goal in the third. Hill and Mike McCarthy brought the puck up the ice, then passed off to Blair, who pocketed the puck in the net.

The final goal of the game was fired from the stick of Daley, with the credit for the assist going to Tonelli and Evans.

The Raiders faced off against Fort Erie again on Friday night in Georgetown, and again held the Frontiers down, winning 8-4.

Colin Gordon knocked the first goal of the game in the mesh for Georgetown, at 16:51 of the first period. The assist on the goal was given to Juri Kudrasovs and Sturgeon.

The next goal of the game also came from the sticks of the Raiders, this time from Twiss' stick in particular. Kudrasovs and Daley passed the puck off to Twiss for the assist.

Fort Erie came up with a goal from Blair. He was assisted by Ashworth.

The next marker of the game also belonged to the Frontiers. It was an unassisted marker by Bob Klipich.

TIED 2-2

Sturgeon started Georgetown on their way again, adding the next goal for the Georgetown squad. Evans was his partner on the marker.

Maloney stickhandled his way to Fort Erie's end, where he passed off to Kudrasovs. Kudrasovs then slipped the puck in past Bosnak to add another point in favor of the Raiders.

Fort Erie came up with the next marker, their last of the game. Blair slipped the puck in past McDuffe. He was assisted by teammates Dave Storrington and Hill.

Georgetown's Sturgeon added the next marker, on a pass from Kudrasovs.

Kudrasovs came back again, firing another goal into the net, with the help of Gordon and Sturgeon.

The seventh Raider marker came from the stick of Sturgeon, to Archie Chase, who then beat out Bosnak.

The last goal of the game was scored by Boyce. Fogal and Daley passed the puck off to Boyce for the assist.

STOMPED 11-5

In the third game between Fort Erie and Georgetown on Sunday night, Georgetown again came up with the victory, pounding the Frontiers 11-5, on their own home ice.

Bruce Strums started the scoring, firing the puck past McDuffe to tally for home team Fort Erie. Blair and Roger Simons brought the puck up the ice and passed off to Strums for the marker.

Both teams remained scoreless for the rest of the first period, until Georgetown broke out and scored at 6:59 of the second. Gordon hit the first time for the Raiders with the credit for the assist going to Tonelli and Kudrasovs.

Sturgeon added another marker for Georgetown on a pass from Tonelli and Evans.

The third Raider goal of the game came from the stick of Daley. Evans and Bill Currie brought the puck up the ice.

The last two Georgetown markers of the second period were both scored by Maloney. He was assisted on the first by Terry Porter and Currie. Porter again worked with Maloney to be credited with an assist on the last goal of the second period.

The Raiders began the scoring in the third, with Twiss hammering the puck into the mesh. Kudrasovs and Gordon passed off to Twiss for the assist.

Fort Erie came up with a goal by Daley in the third, to bring the score to 6-2. He was assisted by Cal Buchanan and Storrington.

The next goal of the game also belonged to the Frontiers, with Buchanan swooping in for the marker. Credit for the assist went to Blair and Simons.

Tonelli came up with a goal for the Raiders at 8:05 of the third. Daley and Evans brought the puck up the ice.

and passed off to Tonelli for the assist.

Blair came up with an unassisted goal in the third to aid the Frontiers, in their losing effort.

TWISS SCORES TWICE

The next two markers of the game belonged to Twiss of Georgetown. The first was assisted by Kudrasovs, while Sturgeon helped out on the second marker.

Mike McCarthy of Fort Erie slapped the next puck into the net. Blair and Simons carried the puck up the ice then passed off to McCarthy.

The last two goals of the game came from Georgetown marksmen. Evans and Fogal stickhandled the puck up the ice, then passed to Daley for the tenth goal of the game.

The final marker belonged to Maloney, with credit for the assist going to Milne and also Tonelli.

Both teams remained close in shots on goal during the three games, Georgetown coming up with 89 shots on net, and Fort Erie with 90.

Guarding the net during the three games was Peter McDuffe. Myles Bosnak fended off Georgetown shots.
