Major Atoms 6-4 against Streetsville

The Georgetown major atom hockey team easily took their first semi-final playoff game, 6-4 against Streetsville.

Georgetown dominated the first two periods of play, scoring five markers to Streetsville's one.

In the third, Streetsville bounced back and scored three quick goals to narrow Georgetown's lead to 5-3.

Georgetown shot their last marker into an empty Streetsville net.

Tallying for Georgetown were Mike Hurley with two, Pat Braund, Mark Howie, Mike Teetzel, and Chris Hodgins with one each.

Credit for assists was given to Hurley and Braund with two apiece, as well as Howie, and Chris Souerns, each with one.

The major atoms also played an exhibition game with Caledon, which Georgetown took handily 10-0.

Goalie Steve Tucker recorded the shutout.

Hurley netted five goals in the match, while Braund followed behind with two. Howie, Danny Kent and Chris Hodgins all added one marker to the final score.

Howie had five assists as well, while Braund recorded three, and Hurley two. Gord Paterson, Billy Ward, Dean Irvine and Jim Hammer all were credited with one assist in the victory.

Labelmasters wins, lose

The Georgetown Labelmasters minor midget hockey team split two decisions last week by trouncing Dundas 6-1 and then losing 9-7 to Milton.

In Georgetown's game against visiting Dundas Gerry Milne racked up a hat trick, putting the puck into the net three times for Georgetown. Other goals in the game were scored by Brad McMeekin and Bob Davey.

Brad Nicolucci was credited with an assist on each of Milne's three goals. Mike Sherrard also aided in two of Georgetown's goals, and Kevin Stewart on one.

Home team Georgetown put up a good fight in their loss to Milton, missing out by only two goals.

Stewart scored the first Georgetown goal, unassisted.

Mike Sherrard fired the next goal between the poles, with help from Warren Crawford. $

Crawford and Pat Tunney brought the puck up the ice for Nicolucci, who then popped it past the Milton goalie.

Brian Davis and Brian Ward teamed up to score the next goal, Davis slipping the puck into the net.

Milne assisted Stewart on the second goal of the night.

Mark Hamilton shot the sixth Georgetown marker past Milton's net minder. He was assisted by Tom Cull and Davis.

Milne scored the last Georgetown goal, on a pass from Nicolucci.

The minor midgets have two tournaments left in their season. One will be played in Bowmanville this weekend, while the other will be held in Fort Erie on April 13.
