

Insulators defeat Erin

Georgetown Patterson Insulation defeated Erin 5-3 last week to win the semi-final series 2-0 and advance into the finals for the third year in a row in Wellington-Dufferin-Halton Non Contact Hockey action.

After a scoreless first period Pat Doran connected for Insulators from Bill Reid and Rick Maloney after two minutes of the second period, and was followed by two goals from Peter Thompson on assists from Wayne Houle and Brian Quinn. Erin fought back to within a goal on tallies from Tim McQuarrie and Rod Schott until Insulators scored three straight times to put the game away. Other Insulators scorers were Howie Cornfoot from Maloney, Bill Wells from Merv McNamara, and Reid.

Novice team loses in championship

The North Halton Sports Camp novice rep hockey team travelled to a tournament in Kingston over the weekend. They went to the "B" division championship match after winning one game and losing one. In the final they met Kingston, and were defeated 6-1.

Their first game was played against the Kingston Township novice team. Georgetown had to fight to defeat Kingston, but held them down 3-2 in overtime play.

Kingston opened the scoring in the first period, while Georgetown remained scoreless until the second.

In the second, Georgetown took over the lead on an unassisted marker by Brett Robinson, and a goal from Gary Stewart a minute later. Davin Ciglen and Mark Shepard were credited with the assist on Stewart's goal.

Kingston came back in the third period to tie the game at 2-2.

An extra overtime period had to be played when the tie was still unbroken at the final buzzer.

Pat McCarthy came on for Georgetown at 3:02 of the overtime period to score the third and winning Georgetown marker. Peter Atherley carried the puck up the ice to McCarthy.

The game was an even match, with both teams remaining close together on the number of shots on goal as well as penalties.

Georgetown faced Alta Vista in their second tournament game, and went down to defeat 2-1 in regulation time.

Alta Vista picked up a two goal lead early in the game, which Georgetown didn't contest until they scored with 27 seconds left in the game.

The marker was registered by Serge David, with the assist going to Pat McCarthy.

Georgetown then entered the "B" division championship match with the city of Kingston. The game was a

Sports Quiz

You may be watching a future superstar at the Bantam International Hockey Tournament this week. Many players who showed their true potential at this tournament now play for NHL or WHA teams.

Just one example is Mark Howe. Howe played for the Winnipeg Ambassadors in the 1970 tournament, and was named one of the most valuable players in the series. Winnipeg won the grand championship that year, and also the "A" series championship. Howe, of course now plays for the New England Whalers of the WHA.

In this quiz, we'll tell you the names of players who have played in the Bantam International Hockey Tournament in recent years, the team they played for, and the year. You fill in the professional hockey team which they now play for. Answers will be in next week's Herald.

rematch of last year, when both teams faced each other in the final. Georgetown took last year's game, and this year it went to Kingston by a score of 6-1.

Jeff Duguay scored the only Georgetown marker, with help from Serge David, in the first period.

Kingston hit in one marker in the first period, but pulled ahead, later, scoring three times in the second, and twice in the third period.

Davin Ciglen sprained his ankle in the match and will be out for the rest of the season, according to manager Dave Kentner.

"The boys played well. Everyone played some really good hockey, and everyone played a bit of terrible hockey. But it doesn't really matter whether we won or not, it was a good experience for the boys," said Kentner.

The novice team is now preparing to meet Oakville for the consolation in Tri-County. The first game will be played in Oakville tonight (Wednesday).
