

Philp Publishing wins in GIHL playoffs

The Georgetown Industrial Hockey League semi-final between Philp Publishing and Caledon Chiefs is developing into a very interesting confrontation. Philp jumped back into the lead in the series with a tight 6-4 victory Sunday.

Philp now leads the series five points to three. A win or a tie in the series' fifth game will give Philp a berth in the final. If the Chiefs come up with a win an extra sixth game would be forced.

Norval has already earned the other berth in the final. They disposed of Way-Jay in three straight games in the other semi-final.

The Chiefs started the season very slowly. At the midway point of the campaign it seemed very doubtful that they would earn one of the four playoff spots.

However, as the season wore on the Chiefs starting coming on. They ended up in third spot.

Philp on the other hand has been a very strong club throughout the season and were very impressive in taking their solid second-place showing. They were the only team to earn points against the powerful Norval out.

WON THIRD

The first game in the series ended in a tie. Philp has taken the second and fourth games and the Chiefs earned their only win in the third contest.

The fourth game could have easily gone either way with Philp needing an empty-net goal with only four seconds showing on the clock to give them their two-goal bulge.

Roger Chapman put Philp ahead with a goal early in the first period on a play set up by Louis D'Orazio and Scott McLaughlin.

Midway through the frame the Chiefs drew even when Steve Rowland connected on a solo effort. That completed the scoring for the frame.

The Chiefs took the lead for the only time in the game at 8:12 of the second period when Rowland got his second of the game from Keith Halls.

Philp then got two goals exactly one minute apart to jump back into the lead.

D'Orazio scored the first one with Nick Belviso and Brian Osborne drawing the assists. The second marker came off the stick of Bob Osborne with Bert Osborne assisting.

Belviso scored early in the third period to give Philp the only two-goal lead of the game. Bob Riley assisted.

Keith Halls got Caledon back to within one goal shortly afterwards on an unassisted effort. Keith Aubrey then got the Chiefs even at 14:10 with Ernie Schaump and Rick Rodgers assisting.

Bert Osborne scored what proved to be the winner with Bob and Brian Osborne assisting. Bert Osborne then got the game's last tally into the open net.

The fifth game of the exciting series will be this Sunday at 10 am at Alcott Arena. If a sixth and deciding game is needed will be on Monday, April 2. If Philp takes the series on Sunday the first game of the final would be on Monday.

Norval has now not hit the ice since they beat Way-Jay on March 18. At the earliest they would have a 22-day layoff before the final begins.
