

Grant Richardson third at YBC invitational

YOUTH BOWLING
Grant Richardson won the third place trophy at the 1979 YBC Invitational Singles Championship at the Canadian National Sportsmen's Show.

After the qualifying round score of 731 (235-249-247), Grant competed in the finals on Saturday. In his first match in the finals, he defeated Tom Hall (Cambridge) 245 to 201.

In the second round match, he decisively bested Rick Thomson (Ajax) 290 to 203. However, in the third round, Grant lost to a hot Shawn MacCormack (Gravenhurst) 212 to 292.

This awarded him third place as Shawn lost to Dale Strutt, the champion, 191 to 294.

Wendy Hay with a score of 642 placed 7th and missed the cut-off by 23 pins. Hope Hulme placed 10th in the qualifying round with 617. Julie McCorry was tied for and Stephen Turner were far down the ladder.

Y.B.C. TROPHY WINNERS
After a recheck of the bowling scores at the "Master-Bantam" tournament the directors declared the team of Tammy Wood, Andrew Payne and 'master' Roger Gervais third place champions. As a result, they were presented with trophies during league play on Sat. Mar. 31 at Georgetown Bowl.

"WORLD BANTAM" TOURNAMENT
Saturday, April 7th at 3 p.m. in Guelph, the Georgetown Bowl bantam girls team will be out to defend the championship they won last year. As happened before the boys team hope that history will repeat and they will also return home as champions.

BOWLER OF THE WEEK
Kelly McCorry and Robert Burke were second place winners in the zone McDonalds' "Bowler of the Week" presentations. For this, they will be given the "Blg Mac" award. This Saturday and Sunday all league bowlers will be participating in a "Special Events" house tour-namment in all divisions.
