

Flashback: Peterborough wins tourney

Taken from the March 29, 1973 issue of The Herald:

Peterborough emerged as the champions of the Georgetown International Bantam Hockey Tournament. Peterborough was also the "A" division champion.

Thornhill won the B division, Milton the "C" and Copper Cliff the "D" division.

In one semi-final Peterborough defeated Milton 7-1. Thornhill advanced to the final with a 5-4 victory over Copper Cliff.

And from the same issue:

A spectacular dime novel type finish to the second game of the Ontario Intermediate "A" final series in Port Colborne Tuesday night was featured as the Raiders took a 5-4 win after only five seconds of overtime.

The victory gives the Raiders a two games to none edge in the series.

The Raiders were trailing late in the second game when coach Gerry Inglis pulled netminder Keith Pallett in favor of a sixth attacker.

At 19:42 of the period Paul Robinson forced overtime with a goal.

Barber

England in the fall.

"The reason we want to go to England is to work under Gladys Hogg, who is recognized as one of the best coaches in the world," Barber said.

In an article which appeared in The Herald last year, Barber said that whatever place a dance pair is after the compulsories is where they usually finish overall.

This theory held true at the junior worlds as Barber and Johnson were third after the first round compulsory figures.

"After the compulsories it seemed it did not matter what we did," Barber said. "The judges make up their minds at that point as to where a pair will finish."

Barber said that the winning Soviets were improved over last year, but that he and Johnson were also better.

The scoring was very close between the second place team and Barber and Johnson.

Curling

Thanks to Ted Peck, Vic Carson and all the other curlers who helped make a successful day.

The junior section completed their third draw last week with trophies going to the first place rink of Craig Steley, Steve Brundle and Peter Carson.

Second place went to Craig Carlisle's rink of Jeff Gillies and Dave St. Onge. The third place rink was Mark Perego, Tim Peck, Linda Carson and Ivan Carlisle.

SIGN NOW

Curlers don't forget to sign up for the final fling of the season - the Johnny Corn elisu Bonspiel held for the week of April 15 to 21.

The mixed committee has planned a big dinner dance for the Saturday evening, so come out and join the fun.

See you on the ice!

In the overtime period Junior Tibbitts won the face-off drawing the puck to defenseman Bill Currie. Currie relayed the disc to Tom Gilbert who was streaking up the wing. Gilbert flipped the puck from outside the blue-line and somehow it found its way passed Rob Stewart in the Sailor net.
