

Peggy Fischer rink wins ladies' bonspiel

By MARG AND STEW TEEZEL

The ladies competitive section held its playoffs Mon. April 2 with the top eight rinks competing. The top four rinks made up the A side and the bottom four the B side.

The winners of the A group and the Rene Holme Trophy were Peggy Fischer and her rink of Lena Burns, Mary Ellen Bridge and Joan Trimble.

Runners up and winners of the Irene Curry Trophy were Norma Wilson and her rink of Marg Teetzel, Enid Muir and June Russell. The winners of the B side were Alice Frazer and her rink of June Durrant, Barb Forefellow and Theresa Smith.

On the runner up rink Greta Lamb moved up to skip Betty Hull's team with Agnes Park (spare), Norma Carlisle and Liz McNeilly.

SOMETHING NEW

Something new was added this year with a selection of the most valuable player of the day. Greta Lamb was the winner and June Durrant received the prize for best shot of the day.

Ann Hartford's rink of Sherrill Collins, Dynese Griffiths and Lin Jewell was the winner of the Taylor Award for capturing the most points during regular play in the competitive section. This award will be presented at the wine and cheese party.

At the luncheon which took place between games, prizes were given out to the 10 most distinguished curlers from the competitive section.

The winners were: Most valuable player - Ann Hartford, Rookie of the year -

Theresa Smith and Carol Moffat, Most sportsmanlike player - Julie White, Strongest sweeper - Janet McKeeman, Most improved curer - Janet McKeeman, Best dressed on ice - Ellen Burns, Best coiffed on ice - Jane Burrows, Best joke teller - Bette Broomhead.

Most distinguished laugh - Marg Teetzel, Most superstitious curler - Joan Mustard.

The girls voted in at the competitive all star team were: skip Ann Hartford, vice Ethel Murdy, second Dynese Griffiths, and lead Ellen Burns. It was a lot of fun.

The door prizes were donated by Frank Vetere's Pizzeria, North Halton Golf and Country Club, the Hair Shoppe, Georgetown Cinema "3" and Al and Ev Dean. Many thanks go to Sherrill Collins and her committee for a super day.

MIXED SECTION

The mixed section held its playoffs on Saturday (due to hydro problems they were cancelled Fri. evening) with the top eight rinks competing in a single knockout competition. The winning rink was Bruce White with Alice Frazer, Terry and Betty Christie.

In second spot was George Wild's rink of Frances Wild, Bob and Liz McNeilly. We hear that final game went right down to final rock too. Good curling.

Two ladies rinks went to the Brampton 2 day spiel last week. Alice Frazer, Doreen Geofreda, Eva Bradley and Jean Brander and won 3rd prize in the third event with 2 wins and 2 losses. Norma Wilson's rink of Marg Teetzel, Enid Muir and June Russell won 1 game and lost 2.

The men's section is involved in the annual spiel with Orangeville this week with the club obtaining the most total points winning the Crichton Trophy. Good luck Georgetown.

Godfather Night is this Saturday. Wednesday is ladies guest day and Sunday is the beginning of the Cornellus the final event for the season.
