

Jim Wilson's rink wins men's competitive

By Marg and Stew Teetzel

The men's competitive section held their playoffs this past Friday with the top four rinks of the year in the main event and the second four in the consolation event.

The trophy winning team was skip Jim Wilson, vice Bruce White, second Doc Russell and lead Bob Smith. In second place was Wayne Taylor's rink of Mike Makovynk Sr., Blaine Mitton and Murray McIntosh.

The consolation winners were Les Ashcroft and his rink of Bill French (sparing for George Wild), Stew Teetzel and Drew Leverette. Runners up were Graham Thompson, Rick Kidney (sparing for Dennis McConnell), Dave Woodburn and Warren Micklethwaite (for Gavin Strachan).

CORNELIUS

The men's final draw for the season has come to an end as next week the evening ice will be used for the Cornelius Bonspiel - the final fling of the year.

Tues. 6:30 first place: Wayne Taylor's rink of Mike Makovynk Sr., Blaine Mitton and Murray McIntosh. Second place: Dave Porter's rink of Greg Geofreda, Mike Makovynk Jr. and Mark Perego.

Tues. 8:30 - first place Chris Bridge with Ray Strickland, Ed Parker and Howard Jewell. Second place Mike Geofreda with Ron Perego, Vic Carson and Bob Bruce.

Mon. 7:00 first place: Harry Shore with Bob Harris, Bob McNeilly and Ken Tazzman. Second place: Ray Strickland with Mac Duff, Tony DeHueck and Cliff Evans.

We were unable to find the winners for the Thurs. 6:30 draw but the 8:30 winners were skip Mike Makovynk Sr. with Rick Kidney, Mike Makovynk Jr. and Cliff Evans. In second place were Graham Thompson, Dennis McConnell, Bob Smith and Ken Tazzman.

The men have been trying to make use of that ice before we lose it. They also played the annual Orangeville - Georgetown Spiel for the Jack Crichton Trophy this past week. Orangeville played host Monday evening and Georgetown on Thursday. Its a total points spiel and Orangeville came out on top. Better luck next year boys!

The ladies entertained on Wednesday when they invited their friends to what we hope will be the annual "Guest Day". The morning started with a friendly coffee and an equally friendly eight ends of curling. The ladies stayed for lunch and later reviewed their games over coffee.

Some of the guests hadn't curled for several years and had forgotten that muscles were used so extensively in the game.

It was fun to see so many former members present. Maybe they'll join us again next year?

See you on the ice!

Recreation league in June

The newly-formed Georgetown Recreational Hockey League is scheduled to begin play sometime in late June.

Players interested in taking part in the play can register now at King Submarine.

To compete in the four-team league a player must be 18 or older or over 16 with consent from his parents.

The four sponsors of the teams are Mamma Rosa Pizza, Georgetown Fruit Market, Mac's Milk (Mountainview Plaza) and Atkinson Real Estate.

It will be a contact league, but clean play and sportsmanship will be stressed.

The teams will be made up of players chosen from a blind draft so the play should be very even.

The cost of entering the league will be $35 per player.

Each of the four teams will play in 16 games each.
