

Streetsville at the well for another try

The Streetsville Derbys of the OHA Central Junior "B" league will take their third straight crack at winning the Sutherland Cup, emblematic of supremacy in that hockey division.

Last night the Derbys started the final for the Cup against the Golden Horse-shoe loop champions.

For the past two years the Derbys' opponent in the final has been Stratford. Each time Stratford won the cup.

Streetsville reached the final this year by downing Oshawa four games to one in the semi-final. It was a very close series with four of the games being decided by one goal.

BLUES OUT

The Bramalea Blues who had to be the favorite to take the title after winning a gold medal in the Ontario Games in December, did not even make it out of the Metro league as St. Mikes beat them out. St. Mikes ultimately lost to Oshawa.

Meanwhile, Stratford, again a team which figured to go a long way, were put out of contention by Windsor. Windsor lost to St. Catherines to in the next round.

Last year Streetsville had to go one extra series, beating Windsor and St. Catherines to reach the final against Stratford. They went one less series this year because there are 12 teams in the Central league as opposed to eight last year.

For those interested in seeing Junior "B" hockey at its best, here is the schedule for the remaining games in the Sutherland Cup final.

As previously mentioned the first game was last night in St. Catherines. The second game will be in Streetsville Friday with an 8 p.m. start. Game three will be 7:30 at St. Kitts. Game four will be in Streetsville a week today with an 8p.m. start. Game five, if needed, will be the following Friday in St. Kitts, at 8. Game six, again if necessary will be in Streetsville, Sunday, April 29 at 7:30 and if a deciding game is needed it will be at St. Kitts May 1 beginning at 8.

Pickells honored at home then seeded in Ohio

Bill Pickells, of the Northern Karate Club in Norval, will be a seeded competitor at the Canadian-American Tournament of Champions slated to go at Cleveland, Ohio this weekend.

Pickells will be seeded in his specialty, the Black Belt Kata division.

The Huttonville native was seeded as a result of the many top places he has taken in tournaments over the past several years.

will be $3 for adults and $2 for children under 12.

The grand champion of the Internationals will receive a week's free stay in Florida as well as being seeded in the North American Karate championships.

This week Pickells also announced that the champion in the black belt kata division will receive a custom-made diamond ring.

The winners in each of the 25 divisions will receive six-foot trophies and Pickells says other prizes for competitors will also be announced as the tournament draws near.

Some of the top karate people already set to come are Steve Fisher, Sonny Onowo, Barbara Niggel (who will also do a self-defense demonstration) Hidy Ochia and George Dilman.

Recently Pickells was honored at the St. Mary's Auditorium in Brampton for travelling more than 10,000 miles competing in tournaments.

Pickells said that he has accumulated those miles over the last six years with more than half of them coming in the last year and a half.

The reception was held the same night as the Canadian Karate Championships in Ottawa, which meant Pickells could not compete in the tournament. However, the people organizing the Tournament of Champions chose to seed Pickells, on his record.

Pickells also reports that plans for his Canadian International tournament slated to go at Georgetown's Memorial Arena are going along very smoothly.

He says that tickets for the event, which will feature North America's top karate people will be going on sale later this month. The prices
