

Soccer still in need of head of officials

This week (and last week) I prepared the article prior to going over to Scotland for a wedding and vacation so that you would not feel left out! You can be assured that I am getting as much soccer as I can and enjoying every moment.

Don't forget the coaches clinic this weekend. If you have not already registered. Do so at the recreation department office, Alcott Arena or turn up on Saturday.

There is a fee payable, which is refundable, upon application to the rec. dept. staff, after passing the course exam, should you decide to enter.

essential post to be filled and our playing season will be chaos without someone to organize our refs. Maybe someone has come forward,

In my absence, I hope so. We are due to kick off on the 19th of May, which is just around the corner.
See you next week.

Hoffman here tonight

Olympic Track and Field Competitor Abby Hoffman will be in Georgetown on Wednesday, April 25 and along with local Dave Steen will lead a Jogging Clinic at Cedarvale Community Centre from 8-10 pm. It will be geared for both the novice and experienced jogger. It's free. For further details call Operation ACTION at 877-7211.

CRICKET EXECUTIVE

No doubt you have seen in the press, or heard, that yet again the funds for another much needed field have been rolled back.

Our numbers are on the increase, youth and senior, and the playing facilities are reducing. Also costs generally increase, which in turn, means we have to cramp already exhausted fields and reduce the number of games played.

I fail to understand how the "city fathers" continually fail to use our recreation dollars where needed, and fail to live up to assurances of providing new facilities and maintain and repair existing facilities.

This is an area where the Sports Council can use influence and where you folks as ratepayers should seriously consider who you wish to represent you in using your tax dollars.

We have also been talking to the Ratepayers Association on these matters, and not only in relations to soccer.

I mentioned our officials last week and the lack of a referee organizer. This is an
