The three Georgetown Rugby teams all began their season this past week. In the above photo James Allen of the junior squad tries to pass the ball to a teammate in a close loss to Chinguacousy here Monday. The senior team also went down to defeat that day at the hands of Chinguacousy. The midget squad was the only team that came out on top in the day's play. Earlier in the week the seniors and juniors both fought back to 0-0 ties in away action against Central Peel. (Herald photo by Tony Panacchi)

Rugby teams get off to slow start

BY BILL HUMPHREYS
The GDHS Rebel Rugby teams started off the season on a fair note as they played a home and away encounter earlier this week. The three Rebel teams played their season openers away against Central-Peel High School in Brampton. The junior, the team coach Murray Kittmer is counting on this year, played first of the three teams and they were well matched as they played in a deadlock to the tune of 0-0.

DEADEN SPARK
Kevin Brown, James Allan and Peter Farkas all played a tough game to deaden the opposition's spark. The midget team played the roughest of the three teams and came away with a victory by a score of 10-7. "The juniors played very well, they have some technical aspects to work on like both the midgets and the seniors do," Kittmer said. "The Seniors were the last to play in pouring rain which added to the excitement. The seniors also came out with a 0-0 deadlock but the Central-Peel squad had the Rebs hemmed in their own 25 to one yard line the whole second half. "The seniors played well but they lack experience, half of the team are rookies," Kittmer went on to say.

FLAT
In the Rebels home opener to Bramalea High School, the Rebels came up flat with the midgets being the only winning team. The juniors again started off the day and played a tough match against a very rugged opposition and narrowly lost by a score of 10-6. The midgets played in the cold wind and rain in a match that saw only seven minute halves, but in that time slot the Rebs scored one try to take a 6-0 victory. In the final contest of the day the senior Rebel squad was pitted against a top contender for the title that year. In the hail and rain they were able to compile of 12-0 score in what was also a shortened game.

FINE PLAY
Fine Rebel play for the seniors were Mark Perego, James Allan, who is a junior but came to help out the seniors, and Mark Eutenier. "The seniors played well despite their lack of experience, the juniors backs were a little weak, and the midgets played a little sloppy despite their victory," Kittmer said.
