Bowlers win in Brampton

Two teams made up predominantly of Halton Hills residents, again walked away with the major awards in the Brampton Men's Major 10-Pin League this year.

The Halton Hillbillies won the league championship. Members of the team are Stan Laruso, Egon Madsen, Laurie Brown, Rob Trude and John Madsen.

The Legionnaires, with Brim Bastedo, Jim Jacks, Norm Toppling, Ken Jones, John Brawley and Bill Fisher, took the playoff title.

The Legionnaires defeated the Hillbillies in the final. The Hillbillies had taken the playoff title three straight years.

Laruso had the high average (without handicap) in the league with a 174. He also had the high triple for the season with a 620.

Brown had the high single with handicap and Fisher had the highest triple with handicap.

Later this month Laruso will compete in the Ontario Provincial 10-pin tournament.

Last year he missed winning the individual crown at the tournament, which has more than a 1,000 bowlers competing by a mere three pins.

Nine tryout for midget team

The Georgetown Midget Girls Fastball team will hold their second tryout-practise tonight at 8:30 p.m. at Glen Williams Ball Park.

managing-coaching staff. Aside from James as manager and Don Fendley as general manager Robert Hatcher will join the club as an assistant coach.

Manager Brian James said that there were only nine girls out to the first practise Saturday at the Fairgrounds, but many that were expected to be there were at a track meet in London.

"Of the girls that we did have out I'd say that they were all of the top quality," James said. "We had no less than four girls that are capable of being really good pitchers."

Interested girls who did not make it to the first practise are invited to go out tonight or to the team's next practise at the Georgetown Fairgrounds Diamond "C" at 10 a.m. Saturday.

The team will begin play in the Halton Rural League late this month. The other teams that will be competing in the league are Milton, Acton, Lowville and Hornby.

There has also been an addition to the team's
