

Committee of six to select awards

involved with minor hockey in Georgetown. They have a son, Robbie, who plays rep hockey. One of their daughters, Laura, is a graduate of GDHS and the other, Jenny, is a student there now. James is the only veteran from the committee which chose the first-ever Halton Hills Athlete of the Year in 1978.

One would have to go a long way to find a better authority on local sports than James. He too is a tireless behind-the-scenes worker.

James is on the Georgetown District Minor Hockey Association executive, he managed a rep team, he is on the Georgetown Ball Hockey Association executive and now he has helped form a Georgetown entry in the Halton Rural League.

He is a graduate of Georgetown district high school and he can still be seen on the sidelines watching high schoolers in action.

Hollett has been the editor of the Halton Hills Herald since last October. He helped convert the Herald sports section to its present tabloid format. While a high school student in Montreal Hollett was a member of the city's rugby champions.

He also attended high school in Ottawa where he played soccer and football. During summers Hollett was a water-skiing and sailing instructor.

Hollett is still an avid sports fan and aside from keeping tabs on the local scene he holds season tickets to the Toronto Maple Leafs home games.
