Constable Tom Nicholson of the Halton Regional Police Force, left, received a citation from Rick Chambers and John Horning of the Optimist Club for his efforts in preventing a severely depressed man from harming himself or his family with firearms

industry, and from the spending of homeowners who have more money in their program is another government program which Mr.

McDermid describes as "a complete and utter failure".

derstand, I recognize and 1

agree that the French-speaking people in this country have the right to be serviced

by the federal government in their language, when it is warranted," Mr. McDermid says. "That doesn't mean everyone in Ottawa should

Continued from Page 11

witnessed the kind of solid management needed to transform the financial disadvantages being confronted by nations around the world into a positive economic upswing,

"Canada is actually doing great," he says. "The profit indicator in every province is up, and we came up with 400,000 new jobs last 'year

To assist in improving international economy at the national level, Mr. Milne explains. the Liberals have been responding to recommendations submitted by business and labor organizations, in one instance giving the aircraft industry a financial shot in the arm by commissioning new

Of great interest to many Brampton-Georgetown residents, the factions of the aircraft industry found in nearby Malton are seeing the most positive activity witnessed since the day of John Diefenb-aker's Conservative government scrapped the Avro Arrow placing thousands of workers on the unemployment line.

Mr. Milne blames the Conservatives' contention that national unity is a non-issue and a "red herring," again, on their misunderstanding of the issue.

The Liberals, he says, have committed themselves to protecting the rights of Anglophones in Quebec and Francophones outside Quebec, a goal that would be reached by amending the repatriated Ca-

Joe Clark does not understand the need for meeting Quebec's demands, nor for bringing the constitution home from England, Mr. Milne charges, forcing Conservative candidates in Quebec to publically apologize for their leaders' lack of foresight and und-

REALTH CARE

federal-provincial Medicare programs, Mr. Milne reiterates the Liberal party's commitment to meeting the health care needs of all citizens.

Initially "talked into" block funding for programs like

OHIP in Ontario, the federal government watched its co-sponsored subsidized health care project undermined by the introduction of deterrent fees and the mass exodus of doctors who are opting out of the

But as long as some doctors remain registered under Medicare and provide subsidized health care to the public, Mr.

Milne says, a Liberal government will not intervene. If that does become necessary, block

funding would be discontinued and the program would revert back to the 50-50 financing arrangement shared by the provinces and the federal gov-

Mr. Milne contends that his assistance programs for home buyers have done and will continue to do more for Canadians than recent proposal by the Conservatives could ever do. Joe Clark's promise to introduce tax deductions on party's established financial .

пист.

program by the score.

Asked about the future of the nadian constitution.

erstanding.

types of military aircraft.

according to Mr. Milne.

party record

"My attitude is, I un-

bilingualism-biculturalism

The Liberal government's

Continue ...om Page 11

pockets.

he had in his possession. The citation is part of the Optimists' Respect for Law Week banquet, when the Optimists recognize the work of civillans and police officers in crime prevention and crime solving.

history, you see a direct correlation between unemployment and the growth of the separatist movement. We in the NDP are convinced that If you get people working across Canada it will help national about drastically reducing government spending. A key plank to the NDP's He says that the NDP is as energy strategy is PetroCan concerned about the quality of which Mr. Moulton says his government spending as the party forced the Liberals into creating during the last quantity. . The essential message is minority government.

NDP wants PetroCan

"We obviously want to growing in the right direction retain PetroCan to give through a strong industrial Canadians a better deal in the sector, other problems will energy field but we want to broaden its influenced in the "A strong economy will market place to provide provide the lax base for good competition to the multi-> nationals. "We see PetroCan as a means of developing selfsufficiency in energy. We are not convinced that the Conservatives idea of leaving it to the private sector will prove any more successful than it has in the past."

Mr. Moulton would also like to see the government involved in researching alternate energy sources, like solar energy.

FOOD PRICES Mr. Moulton says that as he canvasses throughout the riding, one of the first things he is asked is what the NDP will do about high food prices.

"We want to have a commission that will investigate price increases. If a price hike is justifiable, fine, but we know there is grouping going on those cases we think prices should be rolled back." We have to give the consumers some protection and would roll back unjust price increases."

Mr. Moulton is critical of the Conservative's proposed mortgage deductability plan, saying that it deals with only one part of the problem.

"Their plan does not deal with the problems of interest rates, which we are talking about. It also doesn't deal with the problem of land speculation.

"We are talking about lowering interest rates to eight per cent and providing tax breaks for people earning less than $30,000 who have mortgage rates above eight per cent. The lower interest rate will be a benefit to everyone, once their present mortgage is paid off. To go down from an eleven per cent rate to eight per cent rate on a $30,000 mortgage will mean a savings of $120 a month to the homeowner. It will make it easier for the homeowner in terms of lower mortgage payments and it will also give them more disposable income which will go back into the economy."

Mr. Moulton is well aware of the possibility that his party will hold the balance of power in the next government and savs "we will fight for our programs.

Mr. Moulton says that speaking only for himself, he would find it difficult as an NDP MP to keep the Liberal government in office. "Eleven years of the Liberals is long enough." He says that whoever holds the largest number of seats in the next parliament, the NDP would insist on pushing their major programs.

"We would not allow the Conservatives to disband PetroCen and we would insist on a more comprehensive housing program than they have offered".

He also says the NDP would insist on the creation of a food prices commission and says his party would not be afraid to fight another election if the ruling party refused to go along with the plank, in the NDP program.

Mr. Moulton argues that there is a possibility that "if the monentums stays with us" the NDP may hold the second largest number of seats in the next parliament with the Liberals holding the balance of

OTHERS WEAK He admits that while his party is weak in Quebec, all three major parties have their areas of weakness. "The Liberals are very isolated in Quebec. They are almost non-existant from Manitoba west and are weak in the Maritimes." He says the Conservatives, like his are weak in Quebec but argues that the NDP have growing strength in British Columbia, Ontario and the Maritimes as well as support in the Prairies. He says that this election will be a turning point in Canadian politics and anticipates a breakthrough for the NDP. The recent endorsement of the NDP by the Toronto Star convinces Mr. Moulton that voters are looking long and hard for serious alternatives to the two other parties.

"We sense breakthrough in this riding DOUBLE HAPPINESS RESTAURANT THINKS AND CANADIDAN LINES Post of the State of the State of Telephone 853-2060

Try Our Delicious

Fish & Chips Chinese Cuisine

* HOURS * Monday to Thursday to a m to 8 p m Friday & Saturday to a m to 11 p m Sunday 12 noon to 8 p m

Telephone 853-2060 والمراجع المراجع المرا

BUSINESS

Robert H. Cranfield, D.C. CHIROPRACTOR

10 Mountainview Rd South

FOR APPOINTMENT CALL 877 4288

OPTOMETRISTS CHIROPRACTORS G.W. Corbett, D.C. Dr. R.R. Hamilton

CHIROPRACTOR

10 Mill Street, Georgelown For Appointment

PHONE. 877 6631 PRINTING

PROFESSIONAL PRINTING

REASONABLE PRICES

theHERALD

877-2201

877-7770

Carretal Professional

Building

16 Mountainview Road 5

Georgetown, Ontario

TELEPHONE 877-3971

Dr. W.B. Foley

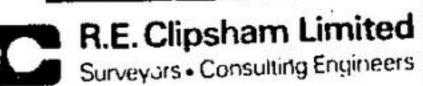

OPTOMETRIST

Suite 204

10 Mountainview Rd. S

GEORGETOWN

SURVEYORS

16 Mountainview Road South, Suite 101, Hallon Hills (Georgetown) Ontario L7G 4K1 (416) 877 2711 457 2002

GEORGETOWN TIRE SALES LTD.

GOODFYEAR

Tiempo drive it with confidence RAINORSHINE

The one tire to save you time, trouble and money!

DR/ER78-14 P195/75R14 FR78-14 P205/75R14 $77.75 P215/75B14 GR78-14 P225/75R14 HR78-14 $70.60 FR78-15 P205/75R15 GR78-15 $77.75 P215/75R15 HR/JR78-15 $81.85 P225/75R15 LR78-15 $91,05 P235/75R15

Buy a set of Tiempo radials and drive with confidence all year You save the cost of 2 extra winter tires. And you say goodbye to changeovers every Spring and Fall

More good reasons to buy Tlempo - RADIAL CONSTRUCTION SEVES YOU money on gas, compared to bias-ply tires TWO STEEL BELTS helps minimize penetrations, bruising in critical tread

. up to 13,000 BiTING EDGES in the tread give Tiempo traction and pull rain or shine . POLYESTER CORD in the tire body provides sidewall strength, flexibility.

gives you a smooth ride

Last 3 days to Save on Polyglas Belted

There's still time to save on Polyglas Whitewalls -our most popular belted tire. But hurn, sale ends

May 19!

A78-13 $36.95 H78-14 $49.95 C78-14 | 38.95 | F78-15 | 42.95 D78-14 39.95 G78-15 46.95 E78-14 40.95 H78-15 49.95 F18 14 42.95 J78 15 53.95 G78-14 46.95 1 176-15 57.95 WHITEWALLS

GEORGETOWN TIRE SALES LTD. 26 Guelph St.

GOOD YEAR 877-1535

OPTIMIST AWARD

McDermid blasts bilingualism says Alberta will get world oil price > people in each department to provide service."

learn French -- just certain

PUSH POLICY Liberal candidate Ross Milne has continually hammered away at energy as the number one issue in the will eventually be receiving the world price for oll, but that this will come about naturally, campaign, and one which will will have perhaps the most long-ranging effect on national Mr. McDermid says he believes in the equality of fuel rates across Canada. He also says Alberta mortgage interest payments is highly misleading, Mr. Milne

Not only would such a program offer greater assistance to higher income home-buyers, he notes, it would increase the national budget deficit by 25 per cent and decrease provincial tax revenues by $1.6 billion.

The Liberal government,

however, would continue to place emphasis on senior citizens and low-rent housing, thus offering greater financial assistance to those who need it charges.

"I feel very strongly about government in business. I don't feel governments can run business as well as the private sector can," Mr. McDermid says. "It doesn't matter when and not by way of concessions the government runs up a from a Conservative premier. deficit, because it comes from the taxpayer's pocket." Milne defends

Mr. McDermid says the Conservatives will not negotiate separation with the Parti Quebccols unless they see the referendum first.

"Canada should be self-

"The Liberals have said sufficient in energy and the Conservative policy is headed towards Canada being self-sufficient in energy by 1990," they will always import oil for the eastern provinces," he continues. "Right now that's economically feasible, but they have no goals down the road in case that situation

Mr. McDermid says.

"I suspect it will be very toosely worded and the Conservatives will campaign against the referendum in Quebec. We will not negotiate," he says. "If a clear majority vote to separate on a clearly worded referendum. then there would have to be some hard negotiations take

HEALTH CARE One of the issues which was raised Sunday evening in the debate between the three party leaders was Canada's health care system, and its accessibility.

Mr. McDermid says the accessibility of the health system is a provincial matter, and "to try and pin accessibility on the federal government is useless."

Helped create it

Continued from Page 11

Conservatives and Liberals

are being naive and ignoring the basic economic lessons of the Depression when they talk that if we get the economy

NATIONAL UNITY

problem that will be solved by bolstering the economy is

He says that another

"Looking at Quebec's

begin to be alleviated.

social services".

national unity.

"That's something the provincial governments are going to have to work out with the medical people," he says. "The federal government gives the provinces grants to operate the system. Monlque Begin (federal minister of health) is saying 'Make sure your doctors stay in OHIP, or you don't get any money'. She's just like her leader, working on a confrontation basis instead of sitting down with the provinces and talking about it."

Mr. McDermid says with only 18 to 20 per cent of medical practictioners in the province opting out of OHIP, "There are still many choices in Ontario". He pointed out that in Georgetown, for example, one of the two anesthetists is still in OHIP. The funding system as It is set out now means the provinces get a lump sum from the federal government, Mr. McDermid says. A Conservative government would negotiate with the provinces about any problems with the present method of operating the health care system, "and that might mean going back to the old cost-sharing system" in which the provinces were accountable to the federal government for the way they spent their health care funds.

There's more to buying or selling a car than you think.

When you're buying or selling a car privately, a handshake and bill of sale doesn't mean the deal is complete.

If you're the seller, it's in your best interest to make sure the change of ownership has been registered properly with the Ministry of Transportation and Communications.

If it hasn't, all parking tickets automatically go to you. If you ignore them you could be subject to arrest for failure to pay fines. You could also find yourself involved in a civil suit if the vehicle is in an accident after the sale.

If you're the buyer, it's also in your best interest to make sure the change of ownership has been registered. Both buyer and seller should visit a Ministry of Transportation and Communications licence-issuing office and transfer the ownership in person.

A free pamphlet, "Buying or Selling a Car Privately", is available at all MTC licence-issuing offices, or by writing Public and Safety Information Branch, Ministry of Transportation and Communications, 1201 Wilson Ave., Downsview, Ontario M3M IJ8.

James Snow, Minister of Transportation and Communications

Ontario