

Redmen qualify at Peel-Haltons

Acton high school will be represented by five of their athletes at the OFSAA Regionals to be held at Niagara Falls on May 31.

The Redmen finished in the middle of the pack in the 37-school meet.

Ted Nadhazi was very impressive in taking the junior boys' pole vault with a height of 3:01 metres. His nearest competitor had a best of 2:89 metres. Nadhazi was the only Redmen to claim a first.

Meredith McLaren had an off day, but she was still good enough to take second place in the senior girls' 100-metres hurdles. She had a time of 17 seconds flat. Julie White, one of Canada's top female competitors, won the event in a new Peel-Halton record of 15.3 seconds.

The week before, at the Haltons, McLaren broke the meet record with a time of 15.9 seconds in the event. She will get another crack to get close to White at the Regionals.

John Lebello was the surprise Redmen on the day. At the Haltons he finished fourth, just qualifying in the midget long jump. In the Peel-Haltons with more than twice as many schools having competitors there, Lobe-lo was second in the event. He had a leap of 5.33 metres.

In the midget pole vault, Don Weaver qualified with a third-place showing. He vaulted nine feet.

Larry Kurtz made it three Redmen qualifying in the pole vault events with a fourth in the senior division.

Larry Kurtz is ever so careful in clearing the bar in the senior boys pole vault event. Kurtz finished fourth to be one of five Acton-athletes to qualify for the OFSAA Regional meet.

Two squash teams downed by Hillside

The Georgetown Racquet Club "D" squash team was the only one of the three teams to come out victorious last week.

The team nipped Oakville's Ontario Racquet Club three matches to two.

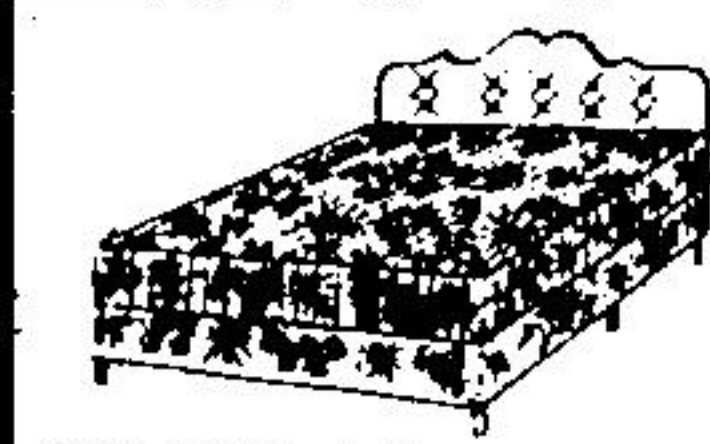

Dave McEwen and Doug Farragan were both very impressive in leading the way with 3-0 wins. Paul Duval was a 3-2 winner. Christine Kogon was defeated 1-3 and Monty Hyde was shut out 0-3.

The "B" and "C" teams were both away against the powerful Hillside teams and both were defeated.

For the "B" team Jim Frank was the only winner as he took his match 3-0. Boyd Hoddinott, Rod Eastwood, and Norm Hertz all lost 1-3 and Al Kogon was downed 0-3.

The "C" team did not have any luck at all as all players lost 0-3. Playing were Alex Furness, Ray Steele, Tom Kankainen, Barry Griffiths and Erwin Shandlemeier.
