Commercial ball gets underway with two games

By BILL HUMPHREYS
This past weekend the commercial baseball leagues of Georgetown got underway with two games played Sunday morning.

The two commercial teams are the Georgetown Cinemas 3 and the Georgetown Frank Vetere's Restaurant.

Both teams have a well organized schedule playing other teams from Toronto and the surrounding areas. The Georgetown Cinemas 3 team was the first to play, their opposition being Bramalea City Centre theatre team.

DOMINATED

The Georgetown crew dominated the field as they came away with an impressive 9-4 victory.

The Frank Vetere team hosted a Frank Vetere's from Toronto and they won by a score of 16-14.

The commercial baseball league is mainly a fun league where female, and male workers join together and really have a great time.

They meet other people that have similar jobs from other towns.

The members of the Cinema 3 team are Tina Gibbs, Kevin Neill, Brian McCloud, Blake Emmerson, Lisa Hanly, Liz McKinnon, Bill Humphreys, Phil Dello, and Rick Bourassa.

The members of the Frank Vetere teams are David Stewart, Dale Penny, Doug Hull, Tim Peck, Jim Taggart, Fern Malipon, Cathy deHueck, John McKee, Carl Newman, Liz Duffy, and Colin Duffy.

Next week Cinemas 3 will travel to play the 427 Drive-In team.

Banquet welcomes alumni

An invitation is extended to all ex-Rebel Athletes to this year's Athletic Banquet to be held June 14th in the GDHS cafeteria.

This year, the Banquet committee is trying to get hold of former Rebel coaches, and as in recent years an interesting slide presentation will be made by Mr. Grant Clatworthy.

So for those interested, buy a ticket and meet old friends and coaches.

Way-Jay pitching great as Terry Haines sparkles

In their first three games this season the Glen Williams Way-Jays have shown that they should not have any pitching problems this year.

Last week the Way-Jays defeated Orangeville 2-1 to run their record to two wins and one loss.

In the game the Way-Jays got their third consecutive excellent pitching performance. Rookie Terry Haines was in the pitching circle for the game and he mowed the Orangeville batters down in the game played at the Glen Tuesday.

Moe Curtis pitched the first game and he lost a tough 2-0 decision to Erin. Jeff Haines tossed in the second game which was a 5-2 win over

Rockwood

OFF BAT

Terry Haines showed right off the bat Tuesday that the Glen possesses the talents of three excellent pitchers.

He struck out the side in order in the first inning to set the torrid pace.

Young Haines, who was an all-star in the Georgetown Industrial League last year, then proceeded to retire the Orangeville side in order right through the fifth inning.

The Glen batters also went down in order for the first two innings, but they scored an unearned run in their half on the third to take the lead.

Jackie Bergmann started the inning with a walk. Rob Hatcher and Haines then sacrificed him over. Dean Hancock got on on an error on which Bergmann scored.

Orangeville got their only run in the sixth. Haines walked Ron Brown to start the inning. One out later this pinch runner Mark McKay scored on Alf Ellis' hit.

HEROICS

It looked like the game would go into extra innings, but in the bottom of the ninth the Way-Jays got the winning run. Dean Hancock got a hit to start the inning. Danny Fields' hit was bobbled. Hancock was cut down on the bases, but Jeff Haines shared the heroes role with his younger brother. Scott as he pinched hit home Fields with the winning run.

The Glen hitters have not been nearly as effective as their pitchers.

Bergmann has the highest average hitting .444. Jeff

Haines is batting .428. Scott Haines is carrying a .287 average. Paul Mastertler is at .333.
