GOOD CUT

This Kentner's player takes a good cut during junior girls' Kinsmen play.

Mosquitoes split two games

Oakville 2 - Georgetown 1
The Georgetown boys went to Oakville for their first league game and came up with a good performance.

Georgetown started the scoring at the 25 min. mark. Tommy Stefan put the ball in the net out of a wild scramble in front of the Oakville goal. Oakville came back 3 minutes before half time to even the score. On a well played second half Oakville proved to be the luckier team and made it 2-1. This year's team captains will be Wayne Morrow and Keith Riccer. Assistant: Stephen Roy.

Georgetown 3 - Rexdale 1
Rexdale went ahead in the 1st half when a Georgetown header went the wrong direction.

However this did not upset the Georgetown boys and at the 20 min. mark Walter Murray made the score even from a nice pass by Thomas Gross. The second half saw Georgetown dominating the game and good team work paid off at the 50 minute mark when Thomas Gross sent Tommy Stefan in the clear to make it 2-1. A late penalty shot by Wayne Morrow made it 3-1. It was a great team effort.
