Girls soccer

Georgetown team selects names

The three Georgetown teams have finally selected names for their teams and we can now publish the league standings up to and including June 5th.

The game between Super-sonics and United on May 29 was rained out and will be re-scheduled. Georgetown and Pineview are joined this year with the Bolton and Milton teams and they are a very welcome addition to the girls rural soccer league.

erson, Todd Beckett and Bill Kent.

We particularly welcome Dave as this is his first year coaching senior girls. We wish him luck as this is a very competitive league.

We are very short of referees, and we are asking the young men of the Banlam league teams to act as referees for girls soccer. Dave Manning has generously offered to give a short introductory course on refereeing. Those who are interested should contact Des Rafferty at 877-7803.

Debutantes edge

Optimists 3-2

JUNIORS

Milton Junior Optimists 2 Debutantes 3
A good game at Milton. Well done Debutantes.

Firebirds 1 Jets 1

A well fought game with Debbie Callow, Jennifer Melville and Tiara Motem playing particularly well for the Firebirds and Stephanie Hanman, Susan Rogers and Barbara Savage for the Jets. Goals were scored by Allison Irvine and Barbara Savage.

Hurricanes 0

Dufferin Aggregates 0
Lisa Mason, Kim Daquano and Cheri Poot did a great job for the Hurricanes in this evenly matched game against Milton.

INTERMEDIATES

Blue Bombers 4 Rapco Foam 3
Rhonda Reynolds, Tracey

Horne and Heather Ferrara scored for Milton. Carol Steinfatt and Carolyn Cillis did a great job on the defense line and Kelly Roe proved to be a great forward by scoring her first goal. The other three goals were all scored by Sarah Belshaw.

Ocelots 2

Red Barons 0

The Ocelots proved what good soccer they can play with goals scored by Pam Marrison and Margaret Zeb-edee who were both in good attacking form and were well supported by the hard work of Karen Reynolds. Though they didn't manage to score a goal, Debbie DeVries and Chris Wilcox played very well and Deanna Kavanagh did extremely well both on the field and whilst in goal.
