

Hornby squirts win first game of season

It took an extra inning to do it, but the Hornby Squirt Boys softball team finally won a game defeating Limehouse last week 11-10 in six innings. Hornby pitcher Kelly Hanczyk scored three times, once in the extra inning to aid his own victory. Other Hornby players to cross the plate were Jammy Anderson 2, Steve Woods 2, one being a home run; Chris Gillard 2, Gene Koeslag 1, and Marvin Ella 1.

Limehouse catcher Alan Scott hit a home run in the bottom of the sixth driving in Steve Lorriman. Mike Case had previously scored to bring Limehouse to within one run. Hornby settled down and Hanczyk struck out two of the next four batters he faced to clinch the victory after four straight losses.

In the lineup for Hornby - Jammy Anderson, Steve Woods, Chris Gillard, Kelly Hanczyk, Jamie King, Jim Speck, Gene Koeslag, Larry Woods, Robert McHugh, S Scott Rynsoever, Billie King and Marvin Ella.

Limehouse lineup - Alan Scott, Mike Case, Brian Porter, Rod Smith, Jeff Ryan, Chris Burrell, Roberto Roggerio, Glen English, Rodger

Mullin, John Benton, Lee Foster, Jason Sharples, Tim Rock, George Coates and

Steve Lorriman. The score was 7-7 after five innings and if time permits and both coaches agree, then an extra inning can be played. Hornby coach asked his boys if they wanted to try to win or take their first point in the league play. The majority of boys wanted to play one more inning - and for the sake of a victory it paid off.
