

In Celebration of Children Boehmers announces its great Photo Competition 15 Cash Prizes!

In response to numerous requests, we are reviving our special Bohmer calendar. In doing so we also wish to do our own small part in encouraging the art of photography, especially among those photographers living or working in our marketing area.

We have chosen as our theme for our 1980 calendar: IN CELEBRATION OF CHILDREN.

We invite serious amateur photographers to submit black and white 8x10 glossy prints on various aspects of this subject, suitable for cropping to 7"x8" format. An independent panel of professionals will be asked to judge and select the 12 most creative and varied prints which will then be published on each monthly calendar page.

A prize of $100 will be sent to each of the 12 winners plus an additional $100 for the photographer judged overall best, $50 for the second and $25 for the third.

To provide the variety of illustrations for our calendar we offer the following suggestions for topics: children and nature; children and pets; children and their relationship to one another; children and their relationship to adults; children at play; children at work; children learning. In this, the International Year of the Child, the scope seems to us to be very wide. Above all - our calendar is meant to be one IN CELEBRATION OF CHILDREN.

Competition closes Sept. 14th, 1979. Entries should be sent to Boehmers, 6 Charles St., Kitchener, marked "Photo Competition." If you wish for complete details regarding rules, please phone your nearest Bohmer branch and a copy will be mailed to you.

Meet new Georgetown doctor

Georgetown's medical profession gained a new member with the opening of Dr. R.E. Bournes' practise at 115 Main Street South.

Dr. Bournes graduated from Queens University with an honour BSC in chemistry and received his MD in 1975. He then completed a two year family practitioner's course at Queens before going to Owen Sound to take over another doctor's practise for a year. Dr. Bournes is from Hamilton and his wife, Debby, is from Oakville.

"We wanted something around the size of Owen Sound but closer to Toronto," he says, "so we stayed in Owen Sound an extra year waiting for an opening in the sort of place we wanted".

The couple have two young children and are renting a home in the east end of town until they find one they want to buy.
