

BIG STOP

The Georgetown netminders did not have many tough stops to make in the juniors 10-1 win over the Swedes last Saturday, but they were there when they had to be. Above

Six-hour ride

Georgetown juniors triumph over tired Sweden squad

The Georgetown Junior hockey team had little trouble in defeating a tired visiting Swedish team 10-1 at Alcott Arena Friday night.

The young Swedes had travelled six hours in a bus during the day and the wear and tear of the trip showed most on their defensemen who gave goaltender Peter Johansson little support.

To add to the Swedes' problems they had not been on ice to practise for nearly a month and they were also asked to tackle a Georgetown team which is one of the best in the Rep system. The Major Bantams, who made up most of the Georgetown team, went three rounds into the OMHA playdowns and also went the same number of rounds in the Georgetown International Bantam Tournament before being eliminated.

NOT LONG

It did not take long for the Georgetown outfit to get on the scoreboard. Thirty-eight seconds after the opening faceoff Dave Doucette, one of three minor bantams in the lineup, tallied with Rivy Kennedy and Eric Clark, another minor bantam, drawing the assists.

Before the first period was six minutes old the Georgetown team really put the Swedes behind the eight ball as they scored three more goals.

David Norton got the second goal with Mike Doucette and Anthony Oram assisting. Mike Doucette made it 3-0 on a play set up by his brother Dave and Geordie Adams. The fourth Georgetown goal came off the stick of Bobby Morrow with Paul White drawing the assist.

Although Georgetown had many more good scoring opportunities in the remainder of the first period they could not get the puck behind Johansson. The little netminder was superb as in many occasions he was left to fend for himself.

Georgetown left little doubt of the outcome of the game when they tallied twice early in the second period. Clark, who played an excellent game on the wing, got the first one with White and Mike Doucette assisting.

White made it 5-0 Georgetown 2:03 into the middle frame and only 39 seconds after the Clark goal, when he tallied from Peter Haller and Morrow.

Oram scored Georgetown's final goal of the second period with 2:47 remaining on the clock with Haller and Blake Harrison, the third minor bantam in the lineup, assisting.

NO SHOTS

There were no official shots on net statistics kept in the game. However, Ian Ward a member of the Sweden '79 committee, said he was keeping tabs on the shots and that Johansson faced 34 in the first two periods.

In the third period, with the game out of reach and also being very tired, the Swedes just appeared to go through the motions.

Ken Ward made it a 7-0 game only 13 seconds into the period with Kennedy setting him up. Clark scored two goals in the middle of the period to complete his hat trick in International play. Norton got assists on two of the goals and Haller, with his third, and Oram, with his second, also had assists on the play.

With 25 seconds left in the game the Swedes finally got on the scoreboard and received a big ovation from the Georgetown crowd.

Roger Larsson scored the goal with Mikael Johansson and Mikael Johansson (that's no typo folks) assisting.

Morrow, who played a tough and aggressive game, was chosen as the most valuable player on the Georgetown side.

LOTS OF STARS

Of course in a 10-1 game it was not easy to pick out an outstanding player on the Georgetown side. Almost everyone in the lineup stood out. Clark, Haller, Oram and Mike Doucette had especially strong games.

Contrasts

Sweden '79 gets going

By ALEX TOUGH

Sweden '79 got off to a great start in the Alcott arena and Moore Park before enthusiastic and sporting crowds on Saturday and Sunday. Although not a hockey expert (nor soccer either some say) I enjoyed the efforts and skills displayed. The Hagfors Juniors were outplayed on the rink and it was a different story on a wet soccer field Sunday. They played an entertaining and skillful brand of soccer against our major Pee Wees.

This was a game of contrasts. The ball skills, positional play and movement of the ball of the Swedish boys against the determination and hard running of our guys.

The result was 6-4 in favor of the visitors with Roger Larsson and his four goals named as Hagfors player of the game and Blake Harrison named for Georgetown. Our selectors also liked Anders Nilsson, Peter Grann, Gary Hulbert, Rob Fattore, Lasse Stenstrom, Eric Clark and Bob Sweezie for their input.

The senior game, like the hockey, was an intense and exciting tie, this time 1-1, with the two number elevens scoring, Lars Persson with a corking daisy cutter through a packed defence following a blocked free kick, and Mark Nelstrop following up a fine run by Steve Robbins to knock the ball into an empty net.

There were flashes of finesse from both teams and lot of efforts. It was fitting that two defensive players were named as player of the game, Grant Richardson and Per Schuman, two excellent number elevens. Also taking the eye were Lars Persson, Goran Erikson and Mikael Eisentless for Hagfors and Phil Milne, Martin Warner and Ian Wilde for the Selects.

Afterwards the players and spectators enjoyed a roast of Cedarvale marshalled by June Wilde and her ladies with some of the stuff donated by Kentner's Catering, McDonalds and Miracle Mart and the Youth Soccer Club. Our officials for the games were Al Doherty, Rob Marshall, Colin Wilde, Bill Barclay and Bryan Turner.
