Wedding bells rang all over on weekend

By WINIFRED SMITH
Herald correspondent

Wedding bells were ringing in all directions on Saturday. There was a wedding in Limehouse church, one in Churchhill and one in Ballinafad church. Rev. W. Dickson officiated at the wedding in Ballinafad when Karen Taylor and Stan Harrison exchanged vows. It was a very pretty wedding, the bride wearing a beautiful white gown, white picture hat and carried white daisies. Her attendants wore rose pink gowns and wore white flowers in their hair. Two beautiful arrangements of pink and white phlox graced the front of the church. Mr. Robert Pinkerton played the organ for the occasion. Following the reception the wedding supper was served in the basement. Ladies of the U.C.W. catered for the meal. Guests at the wedding and other friends were invited to a dance at the Ballinafad community centre later on Saturday evening. Following the honeymoon the happy couple will reside in this community.

Rev. W. Dickson was again the guest speaker at Ballinafad church Sunday morning. Those attending church were privileged to hear a splendid sermon. Next Sunday being the Civic Holiday weekend there will be no church service.

Glad to be able to report that Ross McLean is home from hospital also Bill Reid is recovering from his recent illness at his home in Ballinafad. Mrs. Emily Plouffe is still confined to hospital in Georgetown but progressing slowly.

On Monday afternoon of last week Mrs. Leo Jamieson entertained members of the W.I. and ladies from the U.C.W. to afternoon tea. It was an opportunity for them to see the many gifts presented to the recent newlyweds. Nancy Shortill escorted the guests to the basement where the presents were on display. Mrs. Berry sister-in-law of the hostess and a neighbour, Mrs. Eileen McEnery assisted Mrs. Jamieson with serving the refreshments. A social time was enjoyed.

Amie O'Connor was the guest of honour at a birthday party on Monday afternoon eleven of her young friends came to help her celebrate her ninth birthday at her home, where her two sisters and mother entertained for her.

Dr. and Mrs. Brian Buckrell and family have returned home after a week's holiday up north where they enjoyed camping out.

The club has a dozen active members and meetings are held in member's homes the second Wednesday of every month from September to June. Social events keep members in touch with each other throughout the summer. Members pay local and regional dues and join the Murray Memorial Y. The Acton Club was chartered in 1956. Most of its members are wives of members of the Y's Men Club although any woman interested in Y's Men's work is welcome. Although the group is principally a service arm for the Y's Men's Club members do have their own projects too such as a craft and book sale and participating in local events like the Acton Fall Fair parade. They also sponsor a 6-year-old Argentinian boy.

ALBERTA WEDDING

Local families attend conference

Many families from the Georgetown area were among 25,011 delegates who attended the district convention of Jehovah's Witnesses at Montreal's Olympic Stadium.

Local spokesman, Dennis Hartig, said L.K. Greenlees of New York delivered the principal address of the meeting, speaking on the subject "Mankind's Only Hope - God's Unshakable Kingdom."

Greenlees told the vast audience at the Olympic Stadium that viewing the present world situation has caused an increasing number of people to despair of ever seeing an end to crime and violence.

Highlights of the convention were the baptism of 331 new witnesses at Montreal's Olympic Pool and the release of a special issue of the Witnesses' periodical, "The Watchtower," marking 100 years of publication.
