

Gem. line leads Market to win

Georgetown Fruit Market ended Mac's Milk's winning streak with a convincing 10-5 in Recreation Hockey League action at Alcott Arena last Thursday. In the other game of the evening Atkinson Real Estate downed Mama Rosa Pizza 7-3.

Mac's Milk went into the game against Fruit Market after winning their first six games of the season. The talent-laden Fruit Market team on the other hand had been having its problems. The team had only a win and a tie to show after their first six games.

Mac's had many regulars out of the lineup due to holidays while Fruit Market had most of their big guns dressed.

It only took Fruit Market 24 seconds of the first period to get on the board as Marty Power, playing on a line with fellow Georgetown Geminis Steve Crossman and Tim Turner, tallied.

Fruit Market led 4-2 after the first period and ran away with the game with five goals in the final frame.

The winner's goals were well spread out with Power, who scored twice, being the only multiple goal getter. Chris Peavoy, Crossman, Merle Hacke, Bill Taylor, Ray Peacock, Pete Fendley, Lance Doucette and Turner all had singles.

Craig Fleming and Les Langlois each had two goals for Mac's. John Owen had a single marker in a losing cause.

Atkinson had little trouble in winning over Mama Rosa in the other game as they led all the way.

Greg Thompson led the way for Atkinson as he scored three times. Neil Cotton, Dave Holmes and Herb Kewley all had singles while Eric Stokov tallied twice.

Jim Hillhouse, Glen Chappel and Bill Kirby collected the goals for Mama Rosa.

Merle Hacke of Georgetown Fruit Market missed on this glorious opportunity when he was in alone on Mac's Milk's John Cambouris. Bill Taylor, in the background, threw him the pass. Fruit Market won the game 10-5 to end Mac's winning streak.
