Squirt soccer squad plays in Oakville

A team of players from the Squirt House League teams travelled to Oakville on August 18 to represent Georgetown in the Oakville Regional Tournament for house league select players.

Georgetown's first game was against a strong side from Oakville. Oakville completely dominated the first 15 minutes of play as Georgetown had difficulty adjusting to the large field and the ball which was very heavy because of the wet conditions.

It was only through the excellent goalkeeping by Robert Grguric and a desperate goal-line clearance by Dan McCarthy that Georgetown were kept in the game. The team gradually settled down and were playing well when Oakville managed to break away and score just before half time.

Georgetown completely dominated the second half. Chris Stoddart was firmly in control in mid-field and distributed the ball well to his forwards. Jeremy Felce worked particularly hard but was unable to put the ball in the net and the final score was 1-0 in favor of Oakville.

The second game was played against an aggressive and sometimes rough team from Rexdale. Georgetown started badly and conceded a goal in the first two minutes of play. The team gradually took control and were pressing hard when Brent Presswood scored with a well placed shot high on the net.

The score was 1-1 at half time and Georgetown appeared well placed for a victory and a wild card place in the play-offs. Rexdale began the second half very aggressively and Georgetown were unable to respond. The players forgot the good positional soccer they had been playing in the first half with the result that several Rexdale players were left unmarked in front of goal.

Georgetown had few opportunities to score in the second half. The most serious threat was when Andrew Hoddinott broke through the defence but was tripped just outside the penalty area and Georgetown failed to score from the ensuing free kick. Dan Brennan played a solid game in defence and Chris Stoddart never gave up despite numerous kicks on the ankles and shins from the more chippy Rexdale players. The final score was Rexdale 3 Georgetown 1.

The team consisted of: Dan Brennan (Sharks), Jeremy Felce (Firebirds), Robert Grguric (Thunderbirds), Andrew Hoddinott (Ghosts), Doug Kent (Wildcats), Dan McCarthy (Wildcats), Mark Mininch (Blizzard), Matthew Moore (Firebirds), Steven Murray (Firebirds), Brent Presswood (Stingrays), Philip Rehberg (Stingrays), Chris Stoddart (Ghosts), Dan Stoddart (Wildcats) and Derek Treffry (Thunderbirds).

Ladies 'A' tennis team ties Ontario Rackets

The Gordon Alcott Tennis Club's "A" Ladies Team completed their season by tying York Old Mill 2-2 last week.

The tie left the Gordon Alcott team with a very respectable second place showing in the eight-team league. Ontario Rackets took first place with a three-point edge over Gordon Alcott.

Isla Allison and Linda Rice won their match 6-4, 3-6. Captain Audrey Houston and her partner Ann Kennedy came back to take their match 4-6, 6-4, 6-2.

Pat Harris and Marilyn Serjeantson were defeated 3-6, 2-6. Kay King and Doreen Thompson lost their match 4-6, 3-6. The match had to be forfeited before the second set was completed because King pulled a leg muscle.

The team will finish their season with a friendly round robin against the "B" team today.

Local racer has troubles

Race car driver Alec Donachy, who is the assistant professional at North Halton Golf and Country Club, had nothing but bad luck in the Formula Atlantic event at Mosport over the weekend.

The Formula Atlantic event was scheduled to go on Saturday, but rainy weather forced its cancellation. The event had to be run in an extremely busy Sunday. A combined practise-qualifying session had to be used for the formula Atlantic racers. Donachy spun out early in the session and he went backwards into the fencing at the corner. His pit crew worked speedily to repair the damages to the car and he was able to get back into action before the session ended.

The racer was on the track only for a short time before his engine misfired again forcing a tow back to the pits. That left Donachy with no chance to practise or place to high in the qualifying.

Donachy had to start the race at the back of the field. His luck did not change during the race as after only two laps his engine gave out and he was forced out of the race.

The Formula Atlantic division was won by Kevin Cogan of California.

It was the second disastrous outing in a row for Donachy. In a race in Halifax he went only seven laps before engine failure forced him out.

Top speeds for Formula Atlantic cars is 160 miles per hour.

Two Georgetowners, Lee Ursel and Tom Teder, worked in Donachy's pit.
