

Sports Week

Wednesday, September 5, 1979 - Page 25

Way-Jays split series --p. 27

NATIONAL GYMNASTICS WEEK

(Herald photo by Tony Panacci)

It's National gymnastics week, running from Monday through the weekend and these members of the Halton Hills Jills gymnastics team are thrilled. Gail Eastwood (front) joins her friends Jennifer Melville (left), Janice Atherly and Dianne Hoare to demonstrate a little of their gymnastic expertise. The Jills will be holding a tag day Thursday to raise funds for their club and will top off the week's festivities with a chicken barbeque and dance Friday at the Holy Cross Auditorium. The bar opens at 6:30 p.m. while dinner begins at 7 p.m. Maple Lodge Farms will be supplying the chicken. Dave Smallwood will DJ the dance that begins at 8 p.m. and runs until 1 a.m. There will also be door prizes and spot dance prizes. Tickets are $7 and may be purchased from Jerry Dryden at 877-8690 or Mavis Eastwood at 877-8705.

Milton soccer tournament results
--page 32

Raiders get pro try-outs
--page 29

Cricketers blast
York University
--page 30