Squash tourney attracts stars

Organizers of the McLaughlin Professional Squash Tournament to be held Sept. 13 to 16 in the Georgetown Racquet club are delighted to have eight of the world's top 20 players signed up for the event which offers $6,000 in prize money.

The Georgetown tournament is the only other one either before or after the world professional championships set to begin Sept. 20 in Toronto and the Georgetown contenders will be using the tournament as part of their last minute training. They will be staying in local homes during the event.

Dr. Boyd Hoddinott, one of the events' organizers, said the Georgetown club has the largest permanent international gallery in North America and the public is invited to come along and see the pros in action, especially on Thursday and Friday nights.

The draw for the matches pits Kevin Shaveross of Australia against Murray Lilley of New Zealand for the 7 o'clock opener Thursday evening (Sept. 13). Roand Watson of South Africa tackles Mohammed Asran of Egypt in that evening's second match which starts at 9 p.m.

Friday night's action will see Rahmat Khan of England meeting Steven Bowditch of Australia at 7 o'clock and Torsan Khan of Pakistan facing Ali Aziz of Egypt in the 9 o'clock match.

Tournament semi-finals are scheduled for 7 and 9 p.m. Saturday while the finals will be held Sunday.

Third and fourth place competitors face off at 11 a.m. Sunday. Brunch will be served at 12:30 and the final championship game kicks off at 2 o'clock.

Although tickets will be available at the doors Dr. Hoddinott advises enthusiasts to pick theirs up ahead of time because sales are going well and there may not be any left by match time. Tickets are available from Jim Gordon at North Halton Ford on Highway Seven or by calling 457-4217. Prices are $4 each for Thursday and Friday night's action, $6 for Saturday and $10 for Sunday (including brunch). A package deal is also available giving purchasers one ticket for each evening for $20.
