A look at lures

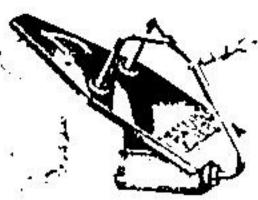

By R.C. (BOB) OLLIVIER

In this week's column, something on fishing and a few hints for the coming hunting season. First off, for those who have called and asked what does a "PINK LADY" and a "DOLPHIN" look like, I have added a sketch with the column. A Pink Lady is a diving sinker that takes your line to great depths without the aid of a "Downrigger."

A Dolphin does the same except that it is magnetically controlled to reset and release where as the pink lady is operated on a silding bar system. They both come in three sizes; for fishing 50 foot maximum depth, 85 ft. max, and 120 ft, max. When a fish strikes, the rig trips and the lure is "planned" to the surface along with your fish and there is no 12 pound ball of lead to bring up out of the fight zone as with downriggers and they are a lot cheaper. Downriggers are much more accurate however and are well worth the extra cost if you are fishing a lot from your own boat.

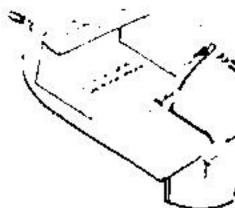

FEW CHINOOK

There are not many Chinook in the fishery this year, but enough from the American planting to make it worth while fishing for them, if you have taken enough Coho to satisfy your desire for "just one Salmon". Chinook can often be taken with the combination of a J-PLUG and a dodger with the distance between the two being about 8 to 12 inches. Chinook prefer 2-4 degrees cooler water than Coho and are more likely to orient to the bottom. Lots of reports of fish stripping ALL the line from some fishermens reels lately. These may be Chinook Salmon but more likely luge Lake Trout. Fish for these two species of fish the same until you can safely say you know the difference in fishing them.

"PINK LADY": ORIGINAL DIVING SINKER

"DOLPHIN": DIVING SINKER

The use of a SHAKESPEARE Model 400 Graph Recorder will improve your score on any of the fish in Lake Onlario or any other water for that matter. The fine markings are easily read and from my experience on the many different recorders on the market this one seems to better fulfill the needs of fishermen. Be prepared to pay a good price for the recorders but the superior quality will serve you a lifetime.

Charter boats: two this week; Keith Dickens on the FISHING MACHINE has an excellent knowledge of the lake and its fish, it will get you into the all important salmon as well as the trouts. Fishing out of Port Credit in the 23 foot boat he operates with both C.B. and VHF radio and is insured for $500,000 in case of accident. The rates are $250 per day for 4 men, or $62.50 per person for an 8 hour fishing day. Keith may be contacted by phoning (705) 435-7456.

HAPPYPAPPY

George De Caton now runs the HAPPY PAPPY I out of Bronte and this 22 foot boat is well equipped to get fish on board. This charter runs only $200 per day or $50 per man but that may be due to the fact that George only runs C.B. radio and no VHF. The importance of VHF is a matter of your own choosing, as many of the smaller private boats run C.B. on board and all the larger ones are so equipped. Call George at (519) 756-3438 and with all these charter operators you may tell them where you got the information, as they often send news on the salmon fishing, to me through their customers.

HUNTING; now may be a good time to get yourself a copy of the well written and documented book DUCKS AND GEESE OF NORTH AMERICA by Frank C. Belrose and produced by Stackpole Books. This book goes further than most any other work in the identification of the various birds classes as waterfowl and is a definate addition to the library of any hunter of ducks and geese. I am sure you can get it at the Book Shop on Main Street in Georgetown or they may be able to get it for you. It is not a cheap book, but then quality is never cheap but is always worth the price.

CONSTANT TASK

Along with the identification of your quary, there is always the task of hitting what you aim at. Shoot at a target 50 yards away in a stiff cross wind and see where the string of pellets go. This will help you to see where to aim at long range ducks and geese. Waterfowl often fly in shotgun range when winds are strong and are often missed. The reason birds fly lower is that the winds are stronger up higher, than at ground level. A crossing mallard at the normal speed of 35 MPH requires THREE BIRD lengths forward allowance at 40 yards with the gun being swung smoothly at the speed of the target. And don't forget that you need to aim BELOW a decoyed duck as it is DROPPING into the shot string.

A late news item; Charlie Knoepfli of Hyland Cres. In Georgetown took the largest COHO in the Toronto Star Great Salmon Hunt last Saturday. It weighed in at 16.60 pounds, and the fish are stacked up off the piers at BRONTE. It is now time to do your thing on Lake Ontario, and enjoy the bounty of ONTARIO OUTDOORS.
