

ICG meets today with Ontario Hydro

Members of the Interested Citizens' Group (ICG) fighting the building of a hydro corridor through Halton Hills will meet with Ontario Hydro chairman Hugh McCauley today (Wednesday) to discuss the issue.

ICG spokesman John Minns said the group plans to discuss a number of things with Mr. McCauley, among them the reasoning behind the ICG's position, and the reasons for the group's continued opposition to the hydro corridor.

Mr. Minns said the group will present its requests to Mr. McCauley and hopes the parties involved can arrive at a compromise position to bring more progress to the dispute between the landowners and Hydro.

"Ontario Hydro has listened to some of our requests in the past and has implemented some of them, but the main issue has not been resolved," Mr. Minns said.

He said the preliminary work has been done so that the group could file an appeal, if it wished, of the Supreme Court decision to dismiss the joint ICG-town appeal of an Ontario Municipal Board ruling on the corridor.

The ICG and the town of Halton Hills had appealed to have a ruling by the Ontario Municipal Board on permitting the corridor to proceed unopposed. The Supreme Court last week dismissed the appeal.

Mr. Minns said the group would decide at a meeting to be held last night whether or not to appeal the decision. He said work has been done to ensure the group's avenues of appeal remain open. ICG members have also looked into the possibilities of other court actions on the corridor, and these were to be discussed at last night's meeting as well.

BELOW NORMAL APPLE SEASON

Ottawa Bureau
Of the Herald

OTTAWA - The effect of a cool, wet growing season is expected to show soon in a slightly below normal apple harvest in Ontario.

Marketing analysts with the federal agriculture department predict a below normal harvest of 320 million pounds from Ontario where rain and cooler temperatures made growing difficult this year.

Similar conditions were reported in British Columbia, where another 320 million pounds is expected to be harvested, but problems were worse in the Maritimes where rain has hampered both spraying and harvesting and tropical storms moving north have knocked immature apples from the trees.

Total Canadian production is expected to reach 936 million pounds slightly below the large 1978 crop which exceeded one billion pounds.

As usual, the McIntosh is expected to be the most popular crop and yield 359 million pounds with the Delicious crop estimated at 239 million pounds.

The agriculture ministry expects producers to harvest 91,000 pounds of Spys, 56,000 pounds of Spartans and 31,000 pounds of Courtlands. Yields for all other varieties are estimated to be below 10,000 pounds.

Glen Hall Board

Terry Gorman was elected chairman of the Glen Williams town hall board at the board's recent elections.

Supporting Mr. Gorman on the board's executive will be Joan Minns as secretary and Ellen Russell as treasurer.

At present the hall is fairly well open for bookings and any group, non-profit or otherwise, can rent it by contacting Pat Herrington, the board's booking agent.

The board set the date of the annual children's Christmas party as Dec. 15 in the hall.

Members also discussed next year's Canada Day celebrations and the fact that the Y has switched its pre-school children's program to St. Alban's Hall so that youngsters could spend some time outdoors during good weather this fall. Since the hall has no grounds connected with it the Y felt the course had to be held where there was outdoor space available to them and moved to St. Alban's.

The financial statement showed the hall to have a bank balance of around $3,600 and members decided to reserve the money towards operating expenses until such time as sufficient bookings have been made to carry the hall through the coming year. Then the reserve fund may be used to repair the front entry. Volunteers will provide labour and materials to pour foundations and repair the front step this weekend.

Three new couples joined the board at the meeting. They are Karen and Lynn Ferguson, Dave and Joy Smallwood and Helen and Trevor Palmer. Former members returned for another term were Terry and Ann Gorman, Pat and Bob Herrington, Laurie and Richard Nowina, Joan and John Minns, Gerry Cunningham, Bruce Totten, Brian Preston and Ellen Russell.
