

SENIOR FUN

The man behind the mask at the Rotary Club's 25th annual senior citizens' dinner Monday night was Barry Timteck. Mr. Timteck wandered from table to table while other Rotarians were clearing up after dinner, wearing a convict's outfit, homemade handcuffs and a mask. Other entertainment for the large crowd of senior citizens was provided by the Milton Senior Citizens' Orchestra, Sandra Greig and students from Georgetown District High School, who performed excerpts from the musical "Oliver!".

Rotary dinner big success

The Georgetown Rotary Club held its 25th annual Senior Citizens' dinner Monday night in the Holy Cross Church auditorium.

Steaner Emmerson was the master of ceremonies for the evening's entertainment for the 23rd year. The entertainment included dinner music by Charlie Crimes, George Howe and Ralph Uresel, music by the Milton Senior Citizens' Orchestra, and selections from the musical "Oliver!" performed by students from Georgetown District High School, who are putting on the musical this year. Sandra Greig also sang for the audience. Mayor Pete Pomeroy welcomed the guests and thanked the Rotary Club for inviting him to attend.

A number of tickets, 73 in all, to the Rotary Club's Travel and Adventure Motion Picture

Series at the Georgetown District High School, were presented to the winners of the draw. The films, which will be shown over the winter months, enable ticket holders to visit Austria, Malaysia, Hawaii, Israel and Eastern Canada, without ever leaving Georgetown. Tickets are available from members of the Rotary Club.

Bill Ward, manager of the Royal Bank of Canada in Georgetown, was the chairman responsible for organizing the dinner. Fellow Rotarian Ralph Uresel assisted Mr. Ward with the arrangements for the entertainment. The Rotary-Annes did the cooking and the dishes, while the Rotarians set up the tables and cleared them away afterwards, and served the dinner.
