

Mackenzie nets five as United Rental slices up Royal Pizza for breakfast 11-1

It was the Brian MacKenzie show Sunday morning during the second game of industrial league action. He scored five times and added four assists as his United Rental team trounced Royal Pizza 11-1.

Royal Pizza probably wished he had slept in for this game as Brian didn't waste any time getting his first goal. Just 35 seconds into the period Dan Boland fed him a pass and away he went on his scoring spree. His next goal didn't come until the latter part of the period when again Boland and teammate Les Langlois got the puck to him at the 15.29 mark for number two. Meanwhile Chris Broadbent from Brian Thoret got one at 3.07. Mike Fenn from Langlois got another at 4.19. Mike Coffey delivered a Pizza goal to end the first period scoring at 17.07, thanks to Edgar Thatcher.

Second period scoring was all United and MacKenzie. Once again they got off to a fast start. This time it was just 30 seconds in when Langlois and MacKenzie teamed up. Broadbent and MacKenzie teamed up next at 5.40. Exactly one minute later Boland and MacKenzie made it 7-1. Then MacKenzie notched another with the help of Boland at 8.13.

MacKenzie kept the United team in front with his fourth goal at the 12.53 mark of the third, with the assist going to Al McClelland. Mike Fenn assisted on MacKenzie's fifth at 17.28. Brian Thoret from Keith McCreary and MacKenzie put an end to the slaughter with less than 20 seconds remaining to play.

Glen Warriors 6 - Akers-Clark 5

Earlier in the morning Glen Warriors and Akers-Clark fought a close game with the Warriors coming out on top 6-5. The winning goal scored with five seconds left in the game.

Grant Bodnar did all the scoring in the first 20 minutes for Akers-Clark. At 13.34 Greg Bodnar and Jim Blair helped him get the scoring started. Then it was Bodnar from Bodnar at 18.10.

Tom Connerty put the Akers team ahead by three on his goal at the 4.00 mark. Assists went out to Doug Getty and Brian Hurley.

The Warriors got on the scoresheet 53 seconds later when Don Richards scored, aided by Merel Hache and Pete Fendley. Then Fendley turned it around and he was the scorer with Hache and Tom Kirk getting the assists.

In the third the scoring was back and forth with either team seeming to be able to win the game. The Warriors tied it up at three a piece when Bob Fotherington picked up a Fendley pass and beat the Akers goalie. Jerry Neil retaliated for Akers almost 10 minutes later when Grant Bodnar passed him the rubber, and put them in front by one.

Larry Melton came back two minutes and two seconds later to tie the score once again with assists going to Chris Peavoy and Bob Inglis. Greg Bodnar put the Akers team ahead once more at 14.45. Doug Edwards and Blair led the way to the goal.

Fendley and Rick Becker got together to tie the game at 17.21. Then with five seconds remaining to play Jamie Moody won the game for the Warriors aided by Paul Gingras.

Norval 8 - Philp Publishing 1

Wrapping up the morning action, the first place Norval team won their fourth game in as many tries by easily walking over Philp Publishing 8-1.

The line of Charlie Knoepfli, Ian Syme and Ray Inglis got the game underway off the faceoff with Knoepfli scoring at the 19 second mark. Bill Kirby came along at 10.33 to score an unassisted goal for Norval.

In the second Brian Beaumont and Ian Syme worked a play for Beaumont to score at 4.34. The only Philp goal came at 5.31 when Mark Falby scored on a pass from Rick Middlebrook. Doug Anderson scored the next two Norval goals. Assisting him were Dave Holmes and Kirby at 7.59. Holmes and Paul Martin assisted at 8.34. Syme added another unassisted goal at 14.47.

Larry Peterson scored an unassisted goal at the 3.50 mark of the third and Beaumont from Knoepfli at 10.54 rounded out the game's scoring.

Sunday the match-ups will be Norval and Royal Pizza, United Rental vs Glen Warriors and Philp Publishing will take on Akers-Clark.

Rebels cross country team goes to Ontario finals Friday

By CAYLEY GRESSWELL

The Rebel Cross-Country team did the impossible at the Peel Haltons on Wednesday. The team not only won the over-all team title at Kelso, but, repeated their Halton triumph and took first place in all six divisions. They also did what every team dreams of doing: getting a perfect score of ten points in the midget girls division. This is the fifth straight year as Peel-Halton champs.

The midget girls' "sweep" was especially thrilling, as Georgetown took all four top spots, coming in within three seconds of each other. The senior boys also gave a great performance, with Georgetown taking first, second, and third place.

The races took place at Kelso Conservation Area, and one runner described the course as "not the hardest course we've run", although she did admit that running up the ski hills made it "a little tough".

Coach Kathy Cosgrove had only good things to say of her team's performance. She said that this is "the strongest team that we've ever had, the most enthusiastic and hard working. We have high hopes for OFSSA", (Ontario finals).

The team is now training for OFSSA, which will be held this week, twelve miles north of Kingston on the Glen Lawrence Golf Course. They will be competing against over 400 other schools. Georgetown qualified the maximum number of runners for OFSSA, with thirty Georgetown runners representing us in the Ontario finals.

Last football game most fun

By CAYLEY GRESSWELL

The football season at the high school ended last week, for both the junior and senior teams. Although both teams lost, they are very pleased with their performances in the final games.

The senior team played a night game, "under the lights" at Bronte Field, against T.A. Blakelock on Friday. The final score was Georgetown 14 - Blakelock 26.

The scoring for Georgetown was led by Mitch Leblanc, who caught a one-handed pass and ran 40 yards for a touchdown. He also played a good game converting both Georgetown touchdowns. The second touchdown was scored on a wide sweep by quarterback John Pritchard.

What made the difference in this game, was the offensive line, they finally pulled together and proved that they could score some points. John Pritchard played an excellent game, backed up by his offensive squad of Dave Taggart, Kevin Greene, Jeff Hubert, and Alf Micalof.

The defense also played well, led by Barry Hardman, Mark Peregó and Dave Chamberlain.

The junior team also played their last game of the season on Thursday against Milton. They lost this close game 14-12, with two touchdowns in the second half being scored by Mike Caruso and Glen Schwyer.

The team was very excited about the game, despite the final outcome. Some felt that it was their "best game of the year" and the game was a lot of fun.

It was a rough game with quite a few Milton injuries. The only major injury for Georgetown was a broken nose sustained by Mike Caruso in the first half.

Both teams ended their seasons saying that their last game was the most fun.
