

Junior volleyball team enters playoff series

By CAYLEY GRESSWELL.
The junior boys' volleyball team play Assumption (a private school from Burlington) today (Wednesday) in their first game of the play-offs. As the junior team was in first place going into the play-offs, they had a bye in the first game and have home game advantage.

beat Assumption 15-4. They led right from the beginning of the fourth and final game. The score ended 15-7.

DISAPPOINTED

Although they won this semi-final game, the team in general seemed disappointed by their play. As coach Clatworthy put it, "There was no team work at all, we won by raw skill alone, beating a team not as talented as us". Those who performed well were Matt Phillips, Shawn Hutt and Jamie South.

The team plays again this week against Blakelock at home for the Halton Championship, and if they win they go on to the Peel-Haltons on Friday.

The seniors didn't fare so well in their semi-final game against M.M. Robinson, also on Wednesday. The senior team lost this match 3-1 (games), and are therefore out of the finals. The scores of the games were 15-2, 17-15, 15-13, 15-10.

Coach Linney was pleased with the team's effort this year, and thinks that they might have been more prepared for the semi-finals if the games were spaced out a bit more. "It got tough at the end."

Playing for the senior team are: captain, Mark Brabant, Kevin Neill, Mark Neistrop, Bob Doyle, Craig McLaughlin, Mark Russell, John Cornwell, Bill Taylor, Jeff Gimple, Keith Norris and Mike Sanderson.

The coaches are Mr. Pedan and Mr. Linney.

Assumption	15-2
	15-13
	15-10
Rebels	17-15

The team started off well in the first game of a "best three out of five series", taking a strong lead from the beginning, and easily winning the game 15-3. After the first game, the play seemed to get a little sloppy. Georgetown lost this game 11-15, despite the fact that it was a close game and the lead changed hands several times. The next game the Rebels pulled together and

Field hockey season ends with losses at tourney

By CAYLEY GRESSWELL.

The field hockey team wound up their season at the Halton Field Hockey tournament, held last Tuesday at Shell Park in Oakville. As most of the Georgetown players are still of junior age, the junior and senior teams were mixed together, letting some of the juniors play with the seniors.

The first game played was against Oakville-Trafalgar. The senior team had to win the game in order to stay in contention for the finals. Georgetown played a good first half, but couldn't "get it together" for the second half. Goalie, Kary Jones (moved up from junior), played a strong game, despite the fact that the final score was 1-0 for O.T.

The second game was against Lord Elgin High School, where the senior team played well and won with the only goal in the game being scored by Carrie Gibbs.

The junior team played one game against OT's junior team. They lost this game although the score remained 0-0 on 'penalty corners'. Georgetown had more penalties in front of the goal than the other team.

This marks the end of the season for the two field hockey teams. They didn't have their best season, but they did very well, showing that Georgetown has the team to beat.
