Golden Age bowlers deep team standings close

With only 12 points separating the first and last place teams in the Golden Age bowling league standings, weekly scores are becoming increasingly important. The Expos and 747's are at the top with 30 points with the Six Dolls not too far behind at the bottom with 18.

Grant Real's team did okay this week as he captured the high single flat, high triple flat and the high triple with handicap. He won the high single with a 291 over Norm Smith who had 259. His high triple of 708 beat nearest rival Jim Zebedee who had 600. His 708 score bettered Smith by three in the high triple with handicap. However Smith came back and beat Real in the high single with handicap.

Anne Nicholson bowled a 203 to beat Dot Brandford's 184 in the high singles. The same two ladies battled it out for the high single with handicap again with the same result. Nicholson had 580 and Brandford 471. Brandford did manage to win. She took the high single with handicap scoring 240. Floss Tracey came close with a 245. Brandford then tied Isabelle Devereaux at 663 in the high triple with handicap. However that was not enough as Florence Eason had 668 to top both.

Team standings to date are as follows: Expos 30, 747's 30, Corner Pins 27, Half and Half 24, Raiders 22, Slow and Easy 22, Sluggers 21, Rolling Pins 20, Friendly Five 19, Blue Jays 19 and Six Dolls 18.
