

CARRIER OF THE MONTH

George Robertson

Herald carrier for the month of October is George Robertson of 7 Edith Street, Georgetown.
George, 12, son of Russel and Carol Robertson, has been delivering 40 papers along Edith, Park, William and Joseph Streets for the past three years. He has recently got a daily paper route and is now breaking in his sister Suzanne, 10, to take over his Herald route. He is a seventh grade student at Stewarttown Senior school in the French Immersion class and enjoys reading and making models. He is also a member of the 3rd Georgetown Scout Troop.
George will receive McDonald gift certificates for being chosen October Carrier of the Month.

Every person is lovable because God made him

Fr. Pierre Wood O.F.M. Cap. Co-Pastor of Holy Cross Catholic Church

Every person is lovable because all are created by God and are infinitely loved by him. The Holy Spirit of love seeks to open our eyes so that we will appreciate the beauty of everyone we encounter. Every person also has needs - physical, emotional, intellectual, cultural and spiritual. The Holy Spirit comes to inspire us to minister to one another's needs, not only for the sake of survival but also for the glorious purpose of building the kingdom of love "on earth as it is in heaven".

All love stems from God. "God is love." And the more we love God, the more we love His children. Our love for the Creator is reflected in our love for His creatures. Understanding this, we come to realize that we need help in making a response of spiritual love to others. Our Father's love sustains us. Our Redeemer's life exemplifies the deeds of love. The Spirit's influence awaits our use.

God desires that we delight in one another. But because of human imperfections, we have difficulty in doing this. The Spirit will help us to deal with imperfections - our own and those of others) if we ask Him, if we are willing to forgive, if we learn to respond and act in ways which foster what is delightful in those around us. This will open up to many of us ministries of love for building the kingdom of God here on earth.

God's kingdom is composed of human lovers. Their love for God is reflected in their love for each other. Christians know that romantic love needs Christian love for its development. The virtues and gifts of the Spirit strengthen and purify it. Without Christ's Redemption, then, human love cannot be sustained. Imperfect people cannot, of themselves, give perfect fulfillment.

God is perfect love. His love includes all other loves. It is fatherly, motherly, brotherly, and sisterly. It is strong, tender and helping. Those who fall in love become ecstatically happy. The happiness of falling in love is really a foretaste of heaven.

Therefore, let us rejoice in the ecstatic happiness of falling in love which mirrors God's joy in His beloved people, but let us yield up our love to the Spirit for purification and blessing so that it may bring us into the kingdom of God.
