

Team shows "good character" despite losing contest

Displaying what coach Bob Webster described as "good character and determination", the minor bantam tri-county team emerged from a 14-2 trouncing at the hands of a bantam team from Michigan to defeat a league rival Bramalea 5-3 on the road.

The local squad had a taste of international competition Saturday when they hosted Michigan Cord Bantams at Gordon Alcott. The American team, which were last year's Quebec City Pee Wee tournament champions and tournament champions here last year, moved up a level, showed their physical strength in out-muscling the local team.

Their obvious talent in all departments showed. That is not to say that the Georgetown team didn't play their best and offer some competition. But, what the Canadians did, the Americans did better. That included shooting, passing and of course scoring. It was a good lesson for the players to see and experience what good training can do.

Jeff Stevens and Joe Richardson were the Georgetown scorers.

Undaunted Georgetown went to Bramalea and came away with the win. Mike Daquano had three goals, Mark Webster one and Andy Fisher a single. Assists went to Jeff Stevens with three, Tom Forbes with two, and singles to Joe Richardson, Mark Webster and Kent Falby.

Mike McNiven played strongly in goal and was aided by defenseman Tommy Forbes who played with much hustle and determination.

The squash teams playing out of the Georgetown Racquet Club have had a busy week. The ladies' team was a at home to the Ontario Racquet Club. Cassie Steen lost her match 3-0 as did Gayle Williamson. Walburga Bomball lost 3-2 and Judy Rivers was the only one able to win. She won 3-0.

The men's team met with varying degrees of success. The B team won by default as the Ontario Racquet Club B team folded. The Georgetown C team however did host Cedar Springs. Alex Furness lost 3-1, Erwin Schandelmair lost 3-0, Dave McEwen lost 3-1, Ray Steele lost 3-0 and Dave Rivers lost 3-1. A rough home stand but, the team did show some promise by winning a few games.

The D team also hosted Cedar Springs. Tom Kalnainen won 3-0, Paul Duval lost 3-1, Chris Kogan lost 3-0, Ron Davies won 3-2 and Doug Farrugan won 3-1.

McNally wins two

The McNally Construction Firefighters won a couple of games this week over Oakville and Dundas.

Monday night they beat Oakville 1-0 on Craig Chantler's goal from Mark Moody and Denn. Doucette. Chris Pearson picked up the shut-out turning back 14 shots. The win was assured by the strong efforts of Chantler, Doucette, Mike Chiovitti and Rick Fisher.

Thursday they played Dundas and beat them 6-3. Chantler from Fisher and Moody and Terry Dixon from Billy Herman and Rory Kennedy scored in the first for Georgetown. Kennedy got the only second period goal for the Firefighters. Mark Zebedee got the assist. Dixon and Zebedee scored in the third. Herman and Kennedy assisted Dixon and Dixon aided Zebedee.

Dundas had taken an early first period lead and Georgetown tied it up by the end of the period. They controlled the second with a goal and wrapped up the game in the third with three goals, two coming within 30 seconds of each other.

The wins add to their other wins of 5-1 over Flamboro, 5-1 over Dundas and a loss to Milton 7-2.

Their next game is at home tomorrow (Thursday) at Memorial arena against Chinguacousy at 6.45. Saturday they are in Streetsville.

Brent Presswood and Chris McCarthy worked hard in the corners, adding 3 and 4 assists regularly.

Novice reps win fifth and sixth

The Georgetown Novice Rep team won their fifth and sixth regular season games over the past weekend with wins on the road.

On Saturday, Georgetown travelled to Brampton and came away with a hard fought 3-2 victory. Brampton opened fast with two unanswered first period goals.

Georgetown came back in the second with goals off the sticks of Mark Lorito, Jeremy Felce, and Jason Knight.

The third period was scoreless but there were several good scoring opportunities, particularly in the final minute when Brampton pulled their goalie for an extra attacker. Joel Burton, Brent Presswood and Andrew Hoddinott had assists in this game for Georgetown.

On Sunday, Georgetown

passed and skated their way to an easy 14-1 romp over Preston. Andrew Hoddinott led the way with four goals and two assists. Adam Bennett played a solid game and had a goal while setting up four others. Dean Gray and Travis Gardiner each had two goals while single markers went to Joel Burton, Mark Lorito, John Brooker, Jeremy Felce and Doug McDermol.

Minor atoms beat Oakville

The minor atom rep team remains unbeaten with their 4-1 win over Oakville Saturday.

Although the Oakville team appeared to be stronger in the first period, there was no scoring by either side and Georgetown's conditioning carried them very well through the second and third periods.

Mark Bergeron got an unassisted marker to get the scoring started. Serge David followed with assists going to Jason Arnold and Paul Howlett. John Lorito ended the second period scoring on an unassisted goal.

Oakville tried for a comeback in the third before Mark Shepherd clinched the win with 2:32 remaining in the game.

Georgetown goaltender Brent Barnes played a strong game ably backed up by defenseman Peter Atherly and Howlett and forwards Davin Ciglen, Jim Lowry, Pat McCarthy and Chris Bewley.

A week before the team hosted Burlington and beat them 4-3. The win came in the second and third periods as the team was totally overcome in the first 20 minutes. If not for the dazzling play of netminder Steve Eastwood the score would have been more than 1-0 at the end.

Trent Burton tied the game for Georgetown and Pat McCarthy put them in front in the second. In the third they came alive and Jason Arnold popped another goal in. Burlington replied with two more to tie the game at three.

The see saw battle continued until McCarthy scored with less than a minute to go.
